Hanoverton Officer Dies In Car Crash

County's 1965 Traffic Toll
17 KILLED
This date in 1964—11 killed!
STAY ALIVE IN '65!

The Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon today continued its investigation in the traffic death of veteran Hanoverton police officer Roy Painter, whose car smashed into a tree about a mile east of the village Tuesday afternoon.

Painter, 43, apparently died instantly when his 1963 sedan veered off a sharp curve of Route 30, crashed through a barbed wire fence and rammed the tree at 5:18 p.m.

Officers said the car was traveling at a high rate of speed and Painter, who was Hanoverton marshal and Hanover Township constable, was probably in pursuit of a traffic offender.

The patrol today continued its questioning of various witnesses in an effort to clarify the reasons for the officer's speed.

He was pronounced dead at Salem City Hospital by Dr. William Kolozsi, Columbiana County corner. The officer suffered multiple fractures. His car was demolished, the patrol said.

A minor fire was ignited in the auto by the impact, but was extinguished by a passing trucker.

The death was the county's 17th highway fatality this year, compared with 11 at this time in 1964.

Mr. Painter, marshal in Hanoverton and constable for 15 years in Hanover Township, was born in Cleveland April 10, 1922. He was the son of Peter Painter of Sarasota, Fla., and the late Eluera Painter.

He was employed at the Columbiana County Maintenance Garage in Lisbon.

He resided in Hanoverton for 30 years, where he was a charter member and past commander of Lepine-Rush American Legion Post 684. He served two years as a staff sergeant in the European Theater during World War II.

In addition to his father, he leaves his widow, Mrs. Mary McLaughlin Painter; two sons, Roy Painter and Michael Painter, and three daughters, Mary Painter, Brenda Painter and Nancy Painter, all at home.

Services will be held Friday at 2 p. m. at the Maple Funeral Home in Kensington by the Rev. Jerrold Hollobaugh, pastor of the Hanoverton Christian Church. Burial will be in Grove Hill Cemetery, Hanoverton.

Friends may call Thursday afternoon and night at the funeral home.

U.S., Viet Planes Hit Red Target

Ground, Air War Reported Raging In Da Nang Area

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Ground and air war raged in the Da Nang area of central Viet Nam today as more than 150 planes attacked suspected Viet Cong headquarters and Communist guerrillas overran a government outpost, killing 26 defenders.

Between 150 and 200 U.S. and Vietnamese planes blasted a 1.5-square-mile area 40 miles south of Da Nang for three hours in one of the heaviest air assaults in central Viet Nam in months, a U.S. Air Force spokesman said. The pilots said they could not estimate the damage because 90 per cent of the area was dense jungle.

Twenty-five miles southwest of Da Nang, a guerrilla force of unknown strength overran a government outpost at An Hoa, in Quang Nam Province, killing 26 in the garrison and wounding one, a U.S. Army spokesman said. Details were sketchy. It was not known if any Americans were involved.

One U.S. Marine was killed and another wounded when about 15 Viet Cong attacked a Marine loading party on a beach about 10 miles southeast of Da Nang, military spokesmen said.

The Marines called in tanks and the Viet Cong withdrew, the spokesmen added. There was no report on Communist casualties.

In the air war, the Son La army depot 125 miles west northwest of Hanoi was attacked again today by 21 U.S. Air Force planes, spokesmen said. It was one of the targets north of Hanoi that have been hit several times in attacks ranging deep into North Viet Nam.

U.S. military spokesmen said the pilots reported they de-

Adlai E. Stevenson Dies

LONDON (AP) — Adlai E. Stevenson, U.S. ambassador to the United Nations, died in London today, the American Embassy announced.

The Embassy said it did not immediately have details of the death of the man who was the unsuccessful Democratic Presidential candidate in 1952 and 1956.

Stevenson had been visiting London for talks with British officials. He had seen Foreign Secretary Michael Stewart this morning.

He died in St. George's Hospital at about 5 p.m. (11 a.m., EST).

Stevenson, 65, former Governor of Illinois, was a frequent visitor to London and had numerous friends here.

Last night he appeared on a television interview over the British Broadcasting Corp. He showed no sign of illness.

Stevenson had been in Europe to attend sessions of the U. N. Economic and Social Council in Geneva and was on his way back home.

He had gone direct to Geneva from the U.N 20th anniversary observance in San Francisco.

He had consulted privately with Secretary-General U Thant in Geneva on the Viet Nam crisis.

Stevenson was engaged in a busy round of appointments when stricken. He was taken to St. George's Hospital at Hyde Park corner across from the garden of Buckingham Palace in the heart of the city.

He arrived here from Paris on Sunday and had been expected to return to the U.S. this weekend.

Mr. Stevenson was something of a political phenomenon.

Lacking any practical political experience whatsoever, he ran for governor of Illinois in 1948 and won by an unprecedented majority — in a state that had elected only three other Democratic chief executives since the Civil War.

McNamara Cites Troop Boost Plans

To Leave Tonight For Saigon With Lodge And Wheeler

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara said today new U. S. troops increases in South Viet Nam would make it necessary to consider calling up military reserves, extending tours of duty and enlarging draft calls.

McNamara, Ambassador-designate Henry Cabot Lodge, and Gen. Earle G. Wheeler, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, are to leave for Saigon tonight on a weeklong survey which is generally expected to result in a decision to make substantial increases in the U.S. forces in Viet Nam.

At a forenoon news conference, McNamara said the Communists have forces in the country which they have not yet used and he therefore predicted new Red military operations.

"The Viet Cong are continuing to increase in South Viet Nam," McNamara said. "They have forces in the country they have not yet assigned to combat.

"We can expect further increases in Viet Cong operations because of forces not yet assigned to combat."

President Johnson had disclosed Tuesday that calling reserves to active duty and enlarging draft quotas were under consideration but said that no decisions would be made pending the return of the McNamara survey group.

"We will do whatever is necessary," Johnson told a news conference Tuesday in charging increased aggression against South Viet Nam from the Communist north and reaffirming U.S. determination to defeat it.

"It is quite possible that new and serious decisions will be necessary in the near future," he said. His news conference statement amounted to an alert to the American people of possible grim news in the offing. It could also be read as one more warning to the Communists that the United States will not see South Viet Nam conquered.

Johnson refused, in response to a specific question, to rule out the possibility of a major land war in Asia because, he

Trio Hospitalized In Beaver Wreck

Three persons were admitted to the Providence Hospital and two others treated and released following a two-car collision two miles west of Beaver Falls Tuesday night.

Seretta A. Keister, 19, wife of the driver of one of the autos, is listed in "fair" condition with lacerations and abrasions of the face and forehead and possible internal injuries.

Two passengers in the second car, Mary E. Mitchell and her son, Ronald H. Mitchell, 13, are both listed in "good" condition — Mrs. Mitchell, who was thrown from the auto, with lacerations and contusions of the body, and her son, with lacerations and abrasions of the face, head and body.

Both drivers, Nelson Mitchell, 33, of Darlington, R. D. 1, and Robert H. Keister, 21, of 8th Ave., Beaver Falls, were treated and released.

Chippewa Barracks of the Pennsylvania state police which investigated said Nelson was traveling south on Shenango Rd., when he made a left turn to enter Rt. 251, and was struck by Keister, who was traveling north.

Both autos, 1953 sedans, were termed total losses.

Mariner Slated To Take Pictures Of Mars Today

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — The space age marvel, Mariner 4, closed in on Mars today with its camera and other instruments set to seek clues to whether life does or could exist on the earth-like planet.

"We're ready," said scientists at Jet Propulsion Laboratory as the 575-pound spacecraft raced towards its 5:20 p.m. (PDT) picture-taking date, climax of the 228-day, 325-million-mile flight.

"As far as we can tell, Mariner 4 is ready and so is the receiving equipment on the ground."

If everything works scientists expect to release Thursday night or Friday history's first closeup of the one other planet in the solar system believed likely to harbor some form of life.

Reddish-tinged Mars, one-fourth the diameter of earth, is the only planet with surface markings visible in telescopes. It has white caps at the poles which could be ice, and vast desert-like areas around its equator. Between the polar caps and the desert are splotches of dark green that some scientists have speculated are vegetation. The whole central belt is criss-crossed by canal-like lines with city-like smudges at the intersections.

Whether or not Mariner 4 finds evidence of life, its success would bring the United States tremendous prestige for the greatest technical achievement yet in deep space: trans-

Deadline's Thursday To Seek Street Work

Safety - Service Director Robert E. Vodrey today issued a new reminder that the deadline falls Thursday for neighborhood groups to file petitions to participate in the city's annual low-cost street surfacing program.

The city pays half of the householders' cost in each instance, plus the full cost of surfacing any intersections. The city's share is taken out of income tax receipts.

Vodrey also reminded that householders must pay their share with a single check for each petition. Either a certified check or a cashier's check is acceptable, he said. He emphasized that cash payments cannot be accepted.

12 Cars Derailed

LISBON — Twelve cars of a Pennsylvania Railroad Co. train were derailed early today near East Rochester, but no one was injured, according to initial reports from railroad authorities. Witnesses reported some 800 feet of track damaged.

City Hospital Releases Boy Located Here

A 15-year-old boy whose three-day disappearance ended in East Liverpool early Monday was released from City Hospital Tuesday afternoon and returned to his home near Pittsburgh where his family reported his faulty memory of his wanderings is returning gradually.

John Mignogna, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Mignogna of Penn Hills, was returned to his home about 1 p. m. yesterday by his mother.

The boy disappeared Friday night after leaving his grandmother's home. Object of a widespread search in the Pittsburgh area, he walked into East Liverpool police headquarters Monday with a bump on his head and said he could not recall his identity.

Because of the head injury, blistered feet and loss of memory, the boy was admitted to City Hospital.

"Things are gradually coming back to him now," Mrs. Mignogna said. "He remembers getting a drink of water in a service station somewhere and finding a quarter on a sidewalk and using it to buy a sandwich."

Mrs. Mignogna reiterated that she and her husband believe a bump on the head which the boy suffered last Wednesday contributed to his memory loss. She said the boy injured his head on a metal window frame while working around the home and complained of a headache for several hours afterward.

In addition, the boy said he believes he may have slipped and fallen Friday night, the mother said.

Midland Acts To Help Ease Traffic Snarl

Crucible Aide Tells Of Plans To Help Correct Problems

Remedies for traffic problems created in Midland when the Crucible Steel Co. initiated a new parking policy for its employes were discussed at a meeting Tuesday night of representatives of the borough council, Crucible and the Midland police department.

Joseph Scalise, division superintendent of employe relations for Crucible, said various steps have been taken, and more are planned, to help alleviate the traffic snarl.

Included in the plans, he said, is the opening of the old road by the Orchard Hotel, between Railroad Lane and Midland Ave., permitting easier access to the parking area.

He said the possibility of extra bus service from East Liverpool to Midland during the mill shift change has been studied, and extra lights, patrolmen and signal lights for the lots will be studied, and remedies made where necessary.

Scalise defended the covered walkway into the mill, calling its location favorable to other such devices set up by other companies in the valley, adding that those workers with serious disabilities are not required to use it.

Both Crucible and Midland officials indicated that a check with the parking and traffic

Fairfield-Waterford Will Seek 4-Mill Levy

The Fairfield - Waterford School District filed a resolution today with the County Election Board asking a vote at the general election Nov. 2 on a 4-mill operating levy that would be in effect for five years.

The resolution said the levy would be comprised of a renewal of an expiring 2.7-mill levy, with an increase of 1.3 mills. The district also contemplates submission of a bond issue, but the resolution has not been certified, according to Frank R. O'Hanlon, Election Board clerk.

Three new nonpartisan candidates also entered. Village Clerk S. R. Davis of Salineville filed for a new term; Mrs. Maine Hall entered for the newly - combined offices of clerk and treasurer at Rogers and Paul D. Dowdell entered for Franklin Township trustee. Mrs. Hall now is Rogers village clerk.

Johnson Names Negro

2 Appointments Due Senate OK

WASHINGTON (AP) — Party leaders predicted today the Senate will approve two of President Johnson's top nominees — Judge Thurgood Marshall to be solicitor general and Leonard H. Marks to direct the U.S. Information Agency.

Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield and Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen said in separate interviews they see no reason both the appointees should not be confirmed with reasonable speed.

However, Johnson's selection of Marshall, a Negro circuit judge, to succeed Archibald Cox as solicitor general, aroused some Southern opposition.

Sen. Spessard L. Holland, D-Fla., said he believed the choice of the former general counsel for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People as the government's chief trial lawyer was unwise.

"To make him the special pleader for the whole of the government certainly opens the matter up to controversy," Holland said.

Johnson announced the nominations Tuesday at a White House news conference. Major topics included:

VIET NAM — The President said "increased aggression from the north may require an increased American response on the ground. It is quite possible that new and serious decisions will be necessary in the near future." In response to a question on whether military reserves might be called up and draft calls increased, he said, "The government is always considering every possibility and every eventuality."

DISARMAMENT — He said the Soviet Union has agreed to the resumption of disarmament negotiations in Geneva and that the United States has suggested the 17-nation talks resume July 27.

POLL TAXES — Johnson said he has asked Atty. Gen. Nicholas Katzenbach to work with House and Senate conferees in an effort to deal with state poll taxes in the voting rights bill.

Assembly May Recess On Matter

Final Attempt Scheduled On Ohio Apportionment

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Leaders of the Ohio Legislature have agreed on a final attempt at legislative reapportionment and hinted the general assembly may recess while the matter is resolved by a joint or special committee.

The plan was disclosed Tuesday during a busy legislative day that saw breakthroughs on major education and welfare bills and Senate passage of a $20 million state employe pay raise measure.

House Speaker Roger W. Cloud, R-Logan, and House Minority Leader A. G. Lancione, D-Belmont, agreed on a renewed attempt to devise a substitute reapportionment plan for the one defeated by voters in the May primary.

Lancione said he hoped to have one new proposal ready for introduction today. Republicans apparently were ready to pin their hopes on one offered by Cloud several days ago.

Thirteen plans were introduced following defeat of the original plan but hearings bogged down several weeks ago and and most lawmakers regarded reapportionment as a dead issue.

Reports circulated that if an agreement could not be hammered out by the end of other legislative activity, expected in a week or so, the legislature would recess and let the committee try to come up with a compromise.

Such an effort would be faced with an Aug. 2 deadline because of a requirement for ballot proposals to be offered 90 days prior to a statewide election.

Ohio faces the prospect of federal court intervention unless the legislature and voters act by the end of the year on a plan to shape House districts in line with the U. S. Supreme Court's "one man, one vote" edict.

The Senate voted Tuesday night to approve the House-passed welfare reorganization bill which sponsors, including Sen. Max Dennis, R-Clinton, said represented many years of study. It includes sweeping propos-

State Police Stage Raid On Paddock Club

Weirton Licensee Fined On Liquor, Gaming Charges

Cpl. C. W. Tighe and Trooper John Fulks arrested James E. Fife, 45, of Weirton, licensee of the club, and charged him with possession of alcoholic liquor and gaming devices.

The troopers confiscated two dice tables, one blackjack table, additional gambling paraphernalia and several bottles of whisky.

Fife appeared before Squire Tromas Bellanco of Weirton about 1:30 a.m. today and pleaded "no contest" to the charges.

He was fined $50 and costs on the liquor charge and $100 and costs on the charge of possessing gaming devices.

$1,500 Fire Strikes Home In Wellsville

Fire of an undetermined origin caused $1,500 damage to a Wellsville home Tuesday at 5:35 p. m.

A neighbor, Dale Humphrey, 1906 Nevada St., spotted the fire and notified the department. The Joy family was out of town at the time.

David Lanam, 809 Commerce St., a volunteer firemen, cut his left eye on an air tank while fighting the blaze and was treated at City Hospital.

Fire Chief Robert Lewis said there was some smoke and heat damage to an adjacent bedroom and hall.

The damage was estimated at $1,000 to the building and $500 to the contents.

County Faces Higher Welfare Costs In Bill

COLUMBUS — Columbiana County is among 68 in Ohio which are expected to encounter increased welfare costs under the welfare reorganization bill passed by the Senate Tuesday night.

Estimates by Assistant State Welfare Director Robert Canary indicate local government contributions will increase by $7,666 a year in Columbiana County.

Dr. Sheppard Turned Down On Rehearing

CINCINNATI (AP)—The U. S. 6th Circuit Court of Appeals denied today a rehearing for Dr. Samuel Sheppard in the case in which it had ordered him returned to Ohio Penitentiary to resume a life sentence for murder.

Dr. Sheppard, a Cleveland osteopath, had served about 10 years of his sentence when a federal district judge ordered him released last July 16 on grounds he had not received a fair trial.

The appellate court reversed that ruling May 5, holding by a 2-1 vote that Sheppard should be sent back to prison.

Sheppard has been free since then, however, pending a decision on the motion for a rehearing. The court of appeals clerk's office said he now has five days in which to ask for another stay to prevent his return to prison. Such a stay would be asked if the case is carried to the U. S. Supreme Court, as his attorney has vowed.

Crucible Aide Tells Of Plans To Help Correct Problems

Remedies for traffic problems created in Midland when the Crucible Steel Co. initiated a new parking policy for its employes were discussed at a meeting Tuesday night of representatives of the borough council, Crucible and the Midland police department.

Joseph Scalise, division superintendent of employe relations for Crucible, said various steps have been taken, and more are planned, to help alleviate the traffic snarl.

Included in the plans, he said, is the opening of the old road by the Orchard Hotel, between Railroad Lane and Midland Ave., permitting easier access to the parking area.

He said the possibility of extra bus service from East Liverpool to Midland during the mill shift change has been studied, and extra lights, patrolmen and signal lights for the lots will be studied, and remedies made where necessary.

Scalise defended the covered walkway into the mill, calling its location favorable to other such devices set up by other companies in the valley, adding that those workers with serious disabilities are not required to use it.

Both Crucible and Midland officials indicated that a check with the parking and traffic

Fairfield-Waterford Will Seek 4-Mill Levy

The Fairfield - Waterford School District filed a resolution today with the County Election Board asking a vote at the general election Nov. 2 on a 4-mill operating levy that would be in effect for five years.

The resolution said the levy would be comprised of a renewal of an expiring 2.7-mill levy, with an increase of 1.3 mills. The district also contemplates submission of a bond issue, but the resolution has not been certified, according to Frank R. O'Hanlon, Election Board clerk.

Three new nonpartisan candidates also entered. Village Clerk S. R. Davis of Salineville filed for a new term; Mrs. Maine Hall entered for the newly - combined offices of clerk and treasurer at Rogers and Paul D. Dowdell entered for Franklin Township trustee. Mrs. Hall now is Rogers village clerk.

Johnson Names Negro

2 Appointments Due Senate OK

WASHINGTON (AP) — Party leaders predicted today the Senate will approve two of President Johnson's top nominees — Judge Thurgood Marshall to be solicitor general and Leonard H. Marks to direct the U.S. Information Agency.

Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield and Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen said in separate interviews they see no reason both the appointees should not be confirmed with reasonable speed.

However, Johnson's selection of Marshall, a Negro circuit judge, to succeed Archibald Cox as solicitor general, aroused some Southern opposition.

Sen. Spessard L. Holland, D-Fla., said he believed the choice of the former general counsel for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People as the government's chief trial lawyer was unwise.

"To make him the special pleader for the whole of the government certainly opens the matter up to controversy," Holland said.

Johnson announced the nominations Tuesday at a White House news conference. Major topics included:

VIET NAM — The President said "increased aggression from the north may require an increased American response on the ground. It is quite possible that new and serious decisions will be necessary in the near future." In response to a question on whether military reserves might be called up and draft calls increased, he said, "The government is always considering every possibility and every eventuality."

DISARMAMENT — He said the Soviet Union has agreed to the resumption of disarmament negotiations in Geneva and that the United States has suggested the 17-nation talks resume July 27.

POLL TAXES — Johnson said he has asked Atty. Gen. Nicholas Katzenbach to work with House and Senate conferees in an effort to deal with state poll taxes in the voting rights bill.

Assembly May Recess On Matter

Final Attempt Scheduled On Ohio Apportionment

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Leaders of the Ohio Legislature have agreed on a final attempt at legislative reapportionment and hinted the general assembly may recess while the matter is resolved by a joint or special committee.

The plan was disclosed Tuesday during a busy legislative day that saw breakthroughs on major education and welfare bills and Senate passage of a $20 million state employe pay raise measure.

House Speaker Roger W. Cloud, R-Logan, and House Minority Leader A. G. Lancione, D-Belmont, agreed on a renewed attempt to devise a substitute reapportionment plan for the one defeated by voters in the May primary.

Lancione said he hoped to have one new proposal ready for introduction today. Republicans apparently were ready to pin their hopes on one offered by Cloud several days ago.

Thirteen plans were introduced following defeat of the original plan but hearings bogged down several weeks ago and and most lawmakers regarded reapportionment as a dead issue.

Reports circulated that if an agreement could not be hammered out by the end of other legislative activity, expected in a week or so, the legislature would recess and let the committee try to come up with a compromise.

Such an effort would be faced with an Aug. 2 deadline because of a requirement for ballot proposals to be offered 90 days prior to a statewide election.

Ohio faces the prospect of federal court intervention unless the legislature and voters act by the end of the year on a plan to shape House districts in line with the U. S. Supreme Court's "one man, one vote" edict.

The Senate voted Tuesday night to approve the House-passed welfare reorganization bill which sponsors, including Sen. Max Dennis, R-Clinton, said represented many years of study. It includes sweeping propos-

State Police Stage Raid On Paddock Club

Weirton Licensee Fined On Liquor, Gaming Charges

Cpl. C. W. Tighe and Trooper John Fulks arrested James E. Fife, 45, of Weirton, licensee of the club, and charged him with possession of alcoholic liquor and gaming devices.

The troopers confiscated two dice tables, one blackjack table, additional gambling paraphernalia and several bottles of whisky.

Fife appeared before Squire Thomas Bellanco of Weirton about 1:30 a.m. today and pleaded "no contest" to the charges.

He was fined $50 and costs on the liquor charge and $100 and costs on the charge of possessing gaming devices.

$1,500 Fire Strikes Home In Wellsville

Fire of an undetermined origin caused $1,500 damage to a Wellsville home Tuesday at 5:35 p. m.

A neighbor, Dale Humphrey, 1906 Nevada St., spotted the fire and notified the department. The Joy family was out of town at the time.

David Lanam, 809 Commerce St., a volunteer firemen, cut his left eye on an air tank while fighting the blaze and was treated at City Hospital.

Fire Chief Robert Lewis said there was some smoke and heat damage to an adjacent bedroom and hall.

The damage was estimated at $1,000 to the building and $500 to the contents.

County Faces Higher Welfare Costs In Bill

COLUMBUS — Columbiana County is among 68 in Ohio which are expected to encounter increased welfare costs under the welfare reorganization bill passed by the Senate Tuesday night.

Estimates by Assistant State Welfare Director Robert Canary indicate local government contributions will increase by $7,666 a year in Columbiana County.

Dr. Sheppard Turned Down On Rehearing

CINCINNATI (AP)—The U. S. 6th Circuit Court of Appeals denied today a rehearing for Dr. Samuel Sheppard in the case in which it had ordered him returned to Ohio Penitentiary to resume a life sentence for murder.

Dr. Sheppard, a Cleveland osteopath, had served about 10 years of his sentence when a federal district judge ordered him released last July 16 on grounds he had not received a fair trial.

The appellate court reversed that ruling May 5, holding by a 2-1 vote that Sheppard should be sent back to prison.

Sheppard has been free since then, however, pending a decision on the motion for a rehearing. The court of appeals clerk's office said he now has five days in which to ask for another stay to prevent his return to prison. Such a stay would be asked if the case is carried to the U. S. Supreme Court, as his attorney has vowed.

Mariner

The Soviet Union's attempt to duplicate the feat failed last April when the Mars-bound Zond 2 — launched two days after Mariner 4 shot aloft Nov. 28 — stopped sending back signals.

Mariner 4 is expected to take up to 21 pictures in a 25-minute north-south photo sweep at altitudes ranging from 7,000 to 5,600 miles. The clearest, which may show objects as small as 1½ miles in length or diameter, could prove once and for all whether the so-called canals are the handiwork of intelligent beings.

Even if the camera should fail, scientists say they will not be overly disappointed in the $200-million Mars exploration program. The windmill-shaped craft carries instruments to measure solar radiation trapped in Mars' magnetic field — a possible hazard to a manned landing planned in the 1970s.

If its radio is working when Mariner 4 swings behind Mars, precise calibration of the fading signal will show the density and depth of the planet's atmosphere.

said, no one can prophesy what the coming weeks or months will bring.

McNamara and Lodge will confer in Saigon with retiring Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor and with Gen. William C. Westmoreland, U.S. troop commander, as well as other American officials and Vietnamese leaders.

"When they return next week," Johnson said, "we will give careful consideration to their recommendations, as well as those of Ambassador Taylor and Gen. Westmoreland. We will do what is necessary."

Already, he emphasized, it is evident that "increased aggression from the north may require an increased American response on the ground in South Viet Nam." This same aggression, Johnson said, makes it necessary to continue bombing "selected military targets" in North Viet Nam.

By JOHN BOHANNAN

After the beginner is able to stay up on water skis and change course by leaning to right or left, the next challenge is to escape from the trap formed by the wake of the boat.

So far, he has been enjoying a steady, but rather rough ride directly astern, bouncing along in the turbulence of the propeller stream.

ON A CALM day there is smooth water on either side, separated from him by the boiling stern waves to right and left. At first, these waves look like formidable barriers. Actually, they are not. To leap across them offers a lot of fun, and the first step toward becoming a more accomplished water skier.

Let's suppose you plan to cross the wake from left to right. First, move as far to the left as possible, still staying in the trough behind the boat.

Then lean to the right. Let the edges of your skis dig in. Now you are on the end of a giant pendulum, swinging to the right, picking up speed. Lean far enough to hit the stern wave as close to right angles as possible. Keep your knees flexed.

For a brief moment you are air - borne as you jump the wave. Then you land in smooth water, still picking up speed and gaining on the boat until you are almost parallel.

NOW YOU lean to the left and back you swing, leaping the starboard stern wave, cutting across the trough, hopping over the port stern wave, gaining speed again and overtaking the boat on her port side.

After you have become accustomed to swinging back and forth, try a little jumping at the precise moment you are passing over a stern wave.

Don't make a production out of it. It need not be much more than a very brief straightening of the knees. With exact timing, you can "hop" for distances of several feet.

The simplest way to end a ski ride is merely to let go of the towbar.

Next to learn is the whip - off for a shore landing. The faster you are going when you let go, the farther you will plane before settling down in the water. Practice whipping off until you can judge the distance.

NEVER TRY a landing while heading directly for the shore. Have the driver run a course parallel with the shore, then approach it at a 45-degree angle as you coast on your skis without power. Then, if you have misjudged, you can still bank away before piling up on the beach.

On your early tries, time your approach so you can settle down in shoal water where it's easy to take off your skis and wade ashore, yet deep enough to be picked up by the boat.

In an emergency, you can slow down your landing speed abruptly by spreading the legs and pointing the tips of the skis toward each other.

Questions and Answers

Q. — Are the skis in a matched pair identical?

Q. — What is the purpose of the fin under the heel of a ski?

A. — To hold the skis on a straight course and to prevent slewing on turns. Slalom skis have larger fins, or keels, jumping skis have wooden keels not more than an inch deep and tapered aft to avoid digging in on waxed ramps, and trick skis have no keels.

The Soviet Union's attempt to duplicate the feat failed last April when the Mars-bound Zond 2 — launched two days after Mariner 4 shot aloft Nov. 28 — stopped sending back signals.

Mariner 4 is expected to take up to 21 pictures in a 25-minute north-south photo sweep at altitudes ranging from 7,000 to 5,600 miles. The clearest, which may show objects as small as 1½ miles in length or diameter, could prove once and for all whether the so-called canals are the handiwork of intelligent beings.

Even if the camera should fail, scientists say they will not be overly disappointed in the $200-million Mars exploration program. The windmill-shaped craft carries instruments to measure solar radiation trapped in Mars' magnetic field — a possible hazard to a manned landing planned in the 1970s.

If its radio is working when Mariner 4 swings behind Mars, precise calibration of the fading signal will show the density and depth of the planet's atmosphere.

said, no one can prophesy what the coming weeks or months will bring.

McNamara and Lodge will confer in Saigon with retiring Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor and with Gen. William C. Westmoreland, U.S. troop commander, as well as other American officials and Vietnamese leaders.

"When they return next week," Johnson said, "we will give careful consideration to their recommendations, as well as those of Ambassador Taylor and Gen. Westmoreland. We will do what is necessary."

Already, he emphasized, it is evident that "increased aggression from the north may require an increased American response on the ground in South Viet Nam." This same aggression, Johnson said, makes it necessary to continue bombing "selected military targets" in North Viet Nam.

The Worst Is Yet To Come

Everything possible has been done by President Johnson and his administration to prepare the American people for worse news about the war in Viet Nam.

The President says the situation will get worse before it gets better. He has changed ambassadors and authorized more troops and equipment. Secretary of Defense McNamara is scheduled to make another inspection.

Is it not time, then, to take the warnings to heart and think about the worse news that can be expected? Besides mounting casualty lists, what are some of the other things that could happen?

The worst would be formation of a working alliance of the Chinese People's Republic and the Soviet Union for the assistance of North Viet Nam and the Viet Cong in their war to thwart U.S. intervention in behalf of South Viet Nam.

That would mean at best another stalemate in Asia like the stalemate in Korea. At worst, it might mean a shattering defeat for U.S. intervention in Asia. Even the most sanguine militarist does not claim the United States could conquer Red China; only the most sanguine would claim it could conquer North Viet Nam if the North Vietnamese were backed by China and Russia.

War on full scale would mean a return to war emergency power for the executive branch of the U.S. government, rationing, mass drafting of manpower, price controls and wage controls.

It would mean another cataclysmic upset in the international balance of power, with every government calculating its chances of making new friends and alliances to improve its position while the United States was preoccupied.

Assuredly it would mean wholesale unrest in the United States as the import of another war like the Korean War sank into national awareness. There would be more policy clashes like the one that erupted when President Truman relieved Gen. MacArthur of his Korean command —more political maneuvers like the one that had Gen. Eisenhower promising to go to Korea if elected to see what could be done to stop the fighting.

The situation will get worse before it gets better, warns President Johnson. It would be well for his countrymen to take his warning to heart, lest the bad news come as a surprise.

Be Careful

A 12-year-old girl of the Salem area died in a Youngstown hospital Monday after being shot accidentally in the throat and a 4-year-old child died Tuesday night at Massillon City Hospital from wounds suffered when a gun discharged after being knocked from a chair.

If you find it necessary to have a gun around the house, take every precaution to see that it's kept in a safe place.

Education in the use of firearms is commendable, and desirable, but until children are of age to properly handle such instructions see that they and guns are kept apart.

Tragedies such as those at Salem and Massillon are the result of carelessness and it would be even more tragic should they be repeated.

But Never By Popular Demand

Public sympathy belongs with the auto industry as it comes under the pop guns of would-be legislative protectors of drivers and passengers.

Everything that has made autos safer so far has been developed by auto manufacturers—and never by popular demand. Latest safety device is seat belts, yet even when these are installed as standard equipment most drivers and passengers don't use them.

Safety glass, steel tops, turn signals, defrosters, head lamps, windshield wipers, padded sun visors, back-up lights, outside rear vision mirrors, glare-resistant inside mirrors, padded instrument panels, recessed knobs, safer doors, tinted windows, automatic dimmers, windshield washers, better steering linkage, stronger brakes—all were installed on autos by voluntary action of manufacturers, never by popular demand, after against customer resistance.

The auto industry's problem continues to be what it always has been—to manufacture automotive vehicles the public will buy, consistent with what the public can use with reasonable safety.

The auto industry's history in America bristles with trial-and-error passages—the introduction of hydraulic brakes and the opposition they met, the experiment with "free wheeling" and the reasons for abandoning it, attempts to install speed-warning systems and general disregard of the systems, unsuccessful experiments with governors.

In the light of automotive evolution, some of the current big talk about grandiose plans to make over the modern auto to suit reformers' notions of what all autos should look like is preposterous.

The auto companies should go together and finance a prototype of the "Reformobile" the do-gooders have in mind. It would prove that what they have in mind is something no one would buy.

It's The Name Of The Game

If House Republican Leader Gerald R. Ford of Grand Rapids, Mich., is going to beef up his party's minority position in Congress, he had better make no more public complaints about Democratic efforts to exterminate the GOP.

That's how the two-party system works.

But the only way a political party can be exterminated is by its own hand; it would have to commit political suicide.

Otherwise, it must keep plugging away, doing the best it can to be an intelligent opposition party, until the voting public finally takes it into its mind to throw out the ruling rascals and throw in replacements.

The two-party system is not an exhibition of good fellowship between phony opponents who merely put on an act for the suckers—not when it's doing what it's supposed to do and has done most of the time in the United States.

It's an endless struggle to destroy the other fellow, in the belief that nothing short of all-out effort warrants popular confidence.

This is the way it always has worked in the past.

This is the way it is still working in the present. Please, won't someone tell House Republican Leader Ford the unworthiest thing he could be doing is to complain that President Johnson and his fellow Democrats are advocating one - party government.

Certainly they are. But Rep. Ford and his fellow Republicans are supposed to keep them from getting away with it. They are supposed to save their own skins and thereby to save two-party government.

That's the game. No one who's in it should knock it, least of all a party leader.

Tricks And Tools

By Truman Twill

It's a funny thing about education. When we want a furnace installed, we call a furnace man.

We go to an eye doctor for our eyes. If our teeth need to be fixed, we call a dentist.

If we have a pain in the belly, we rely on a doctor to find out what can be done about it.

A lawyer is our choice for guidance if we fall afoul of legal barbed wire.

If our go-devel sputters, we take it to a mechanic.

We rely on politicians to do the politicking, on building contractors to put up houses, electricians to do wiring and airplane pilots to sit up front in the cockpit and drive airplanes.

In all other things, we put our faith in professionals.

And if we have the brains that God gave a goose, we let 'em alone.

The only test is whether they perform satisfactorily.

If the furnace works, our teeth don't fall out, our belly feels better, the lawyer wins the case, the car works and professionals do their work well, we don't interfere.

But not education.

Except for sciences, where we cannot pretend to know our way around, meddling in education is a way of life.

Everybody knows what history should shouldn't be mentioned, what sociology should be half-taught, what physiological truths should be distorted and how the whole thing could be done better than it is being done now by intellectuals who never should be in charge of the young in the first place.

Anybody in America is entitled to a place on a school board, except a professional educator. None need apply.

Everybody in America is consulted about education, except professional educators.

So deep does this mistrust of educators run that education not only is put in the hands of non-educators but frequently under the control of anti-educators; i.e., people absolutely and irrevocably opposed to free inquiry.

Education enables people to think for themselves and make their own judgments.

Education in the arts does for thinking individuals what education in the sciences does for mathematicians, chemists and physicists. It familiarizes them with the tricks and tools of cerebration.

But it's a funny thing about education.

Everybody is urged to have a crack at it, but not to trust the educators because they might reveal something we're supposed to be ignorant about.

This 'n That

The world's largest bay is the Bay of Bengal, with a shoreline of 2,250 miles from southeast Ceylon, in the west, to Pagoda, Burma. Its mouth measures 1,075 miles across.

The longest war in which the United States ever has been engaged was the Revolutionary War, which lasted 80 months.

At Last—A Flower

Labor's Role In Freedom Fight Cited

By George Meany

America's Mr. Labor, George Meany, is today's guest columnist for Victor Riesel who is on a labor news gathering expedition in the Caribbean and Latin-America areas.

The booing and the brawls on a college campus here and there cannot hide the fact that the American people, in their vast majority, support President Johnson in his determined effort to have our country meet its international responsibilities.

American labor takes pride in the consistent, unequivocal and vigorous support which it has given to the President's basically sound foreign policies—particularly in his course towards the Viet Nam and Santo Domingo crises. We have done so out of our own experience and conviction. We realize what is a stake in these bitter tests of will and strength and we know the nature, aims and methods of Communism.

The membership and leadership of the AFL-CIO have a deep sense of responsibility as citizens and as trade unionists. American labor has demonstrated this responsibility through its active efforts to help make our country's foreign policy democratic and ever more effective.

WHAT IS MORE, it has been tireless in carrying the message of freedom to the workers of every continent, creed and color.

American labor has combined words with deeds by helping these workers organize themselves into free trade unions capable of providing sound and strong forces for the promotion of human dignity, democracy and social justice in their respective countries.

On the occasion of the last Lincoln's birthday luncheon at the White House, President Johnson very appropriately remarked that "history and our own achievements have . . . thrust upon us the principal responsibility for the protection of freedom on earth. . . No other people in no other time has had so great an opportunity to work and risk for the peace and the freedom of all mankind."

Organized labor in the United States has always known that its very existence depends on democracy. American labor has secured great social, economic and political achievements through devotion to and reliance on the democratic processes.

Thanks, in no small measure to American labor's all-out support of democracy against Fascism, Nazism, Falangism, Peronism, Communism and every other type of tranny, the workers of many other lands are increasingly turning away from totalitarian movements and rallying to the cause of freedom.

WHAT IS this freedom that is so vital to our survival as citizens of a democracy and as trade unionists? To the AFL-CIO, freedom is more than a multiple-party system with free and secret universal suffrage for men and women of every race, color, religion, and national origin. In the philosophy of American labor, freedom is a way of life.

Experience has taught that any movement which opposes freedom of association, conscience and worship, any government which denies its people these basic human rights, any regime which prohibits free trade unions is hopelessly reactionary—regardless of how radical it may pretend to be or how revolutionary its slogans may sound.

The Communist movement, Communist regimes, and those who knowingly support them are really ultra-reactionary. They are the worst enemies of freedom and social justice.

NO LIBERAL can be loyal to his ideals and truly effective unless he is in the front ranks of the fight against Communism and all other reactionary forces. That is why the AFL-CIO has never been neutral in the struggle between human freedom and tyranny—regardless of how far "left" the propagandists and supporters of dictatorship may claim to be.

American labor is anti-totalitarian and not non-totalitarian. American labor is opposed to totalitarianism whether its "ism" be Communist, Fascist, or Nazi. American labor is not somewhere in between, but fully on the side of democracy in its historic struggle against dictatorship.

When we work and fight for freedom, we work and fight for freedom for all the people and not only for labor. American labor knows very well that it cannot enjoy democracy for itself and then deny it to others.

Even those who have never been allowed to taste freedom, even those who have been subjected to indoctrination in the dogmas of dictatorship, yearn for freedom and fight for it in the face of severest hardships and dangers.

This accounts for much of the spreading disenchantment with Communism especially among young people and intellectuals behind the Iron Curtain.

HERE IS the reason why there are so many young men and women among those who risk their lives to flee from the yoke of dictatorship to countries where the people enjoy freedom.

Our university professors and students would serve their country and profession with fruitful distinction if they were to study this historic development and become not only academic but dynamic fighters against the Communist drive to dominate the world and impose on all mankind the Soviet system of tyranny.

It's Second Only To The Military

Coincident with the announcement of major changes in the executive personnel of the U.S. Information Agency here comes word from Moscow that the Soviet government feels it must reorganize its press policy largely because it believes that the information programs of the United States government are achieving more and more penetration of the Communist countries.

David Lawrence

An article in a leading publication of the Communist party in the Soviet Union says that Western agencies, such as the U.S. Information Agency, have been intensifying their campaign of "ideological subversion." Soviet propagandists are called upon to study the information techniques of the United States and other Western countries and to learn to combat them.

Incidentally, though non-Communist newspapers and magazines from the West are not permitted to be sold generally in the Soviet Union, most of the Western broadcasts, including those of the "Voice of America and the British Broadcasting Corp., are no longer being jammed. For this reason, Soviet citizens are reported in a New York Times dispatch from Moscow this week as having "lost their inhibitions about listening" to foreign broadcasts.

While it's gratifying to learn that the U.S. Information Agency's efforts to penetrate the Iron Curtain are meeting with a certain measure of success, there is every reason for the administration to seek intensively to find ways and means of reaching an even larger audience in the Soviet Union and the Communist-bloc countries.

THERE HAS been a controversy for some time in this country concerning the effectiveness of the U.S. Information Agency, including the Voice of America. The criticism has never centered on the personnel itself—because the agency has over the years usually had competent executives—but on the basic rules which should govern the handling of daily broadcasts to other countries.

The Soviet government controls what the newspaper and magazines print as well as what is said over radio and television, so internal criticisms of Soviet policies are restricted, and news of what is happening abroad is often suppressed.

In this country, on the other hand, criticism of government policies is widely printed by the newspaper and covered in radio and television news broadcasts by the privately owned companies. The problem which the U.S. Information Agency faces is whether to continue to duplicate what the newspapers in America are presenting, or whether to concentrate more effort on broadcasts to the rest of the world which not only tell what the President and the secretary of state are doing in foreign policy but answer such criticisms of it as are being published outside this country.

There is a feeling here that the State Department and the White House have, by their rules, inhibited the effectiveness of the USIA under the present administration as well as under past administrations. The diplomatic attitude is always one of caution. Yet, when criticism comes out into the open and the Soviets are disseminating untruths about American policy, it's far better for the USIA immediately to expose the falsehoods and give the truth.

THE USIA should be under no obligation to distribute abroad all of the irresponsible statements made by some members of Congress concerning American foreign policy, for this invariably gives the impression that there is disunity here and that a large section of the American people shares the viewpoint of the dissenters.

While it's necessary to spread the true facts about American foreign policy into Communist-bloc countries, there is a need today also to reach into the Western countries where distortions of American foreign policy are frequently made.

Several of the newspapers in Great Britain and France and other Western countries often give more space to criticisms of American foreign policy than to a defense of it. Consequently, many people abroad get the feeling that the Washington government is floundering or that it has no public support.

This is perhaps the most serious aspect of the problem confronting the United States today in getting co-operation from its allies, particularly in such situations as have developed in Southeast Asia.

THE DISTRIBUTION of information and the effective exposition of America's viewpoint in foreign policy have an impact upon diplomacy itself. The Communist countries are watching for any sign of disunity and are hoping to build up a hostility to American policies throughout the free world. The USIA—and particularly the Voice of America—has a role in fighting the cold war which is exceeded in importance only by that of the military arm of the government.

Letter To The Editor

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

This letter is in regards to the one appearing in last Thursday night's Review.

A few of the East End people were griping about the behavior of some of the East Liverpool youths. In some parts of the letter I agree and in some I don't.

First of all, a man and his wife were thoughtful enough to do, or at least try to do something, for the teen-agers. Some of the kids appreciated it and some of them didn't. The ones who didn't could ruin it for the others.

When the Youth Harbor was first established some of the older generation were complaining about it. I would just like to ask: What is there supposed to be for the teen-agers to do any way?

Most of the kids I know aren't permitted to go to the dances at the lake because of the way some of the kids act.

I suggest that the people of East Liverpool do something. Weirton has a youth center, why can't we?

Around here if the boys want to play baseball they can't very well do so. They used to play at the elementary school lot, but were kicked off because of so many broken windows.

I can understand that, but when they went over to a vacant field adjoining Patterson Foundry they were sent away from there also by a man who lives next door. That I can't understand because the man doesn't even own the field.

Even Thompson Park isn't what it used to be. I agree with everything that was said in Friday night's paper.

Why can't something be done? Our parents pay taxes, but you wouldn't know it.

The Worst Is Yet To Come

Everything possible has been done by President Johnson and his administration to prepare the American people for worse news about the war in Viet Nam.

The President says the situation will get worse before it gets better. He has changed ambassadors and authorized more troops and equipment. Secretary of Defense McNamara is scheduled to make another inspection.

Is it not time, then, to take the warnings to heart and think about the worse news that can be expected? Besides mounting casualty lists, what are some of the other things that could happen?

The worst would be formation of a working alliance of the Chinese People's Republic and the Soviet Union for the assistance of North Viet Nam and the Viet Cong in their war to thwart U.S. intervention in behalf of South Viet Nam.

That would mean at best another stalemate in Asia like the stalemate in Korea. At worst, it might mean a shattering defeat for U.S. intervention in Asia. Even the most sanguine militarist does not claim the United States could conquer Red China; only the most sanguine would claim it could conquer North Viet Nam if the North Vietnamese were backed by China and Russia.

War on full scale would mean a return to war emergency power for the executive branch of the U.S. government, rationing, mass drafting of manpower, price controls and wage controls.

It would mean another cataclysmic upset in the international balance of power, with every government calculating its chances of making new friends and alliances to improve its position while the United States was preoccupied.

Assuredly it would mean wholesale unrest in the United States as the import of another war like the Korean War sank into national awareness. There would be more policy clashes like the one that erupted when President Truman relieved Gen. MacArthur of his Korean command —more political maneuvers like the one that had Gen. Eisenhower promising to go to Korea if elected to see what could be done to stop the fighting.

The situation will get worse before it gets better, warns President Johnson. It would be well for his countrymen to take his warning to heart, lest the bad news come as a surprise.

Be Careful

A 12-year-old girl of the Salem area died in a Youngstown hospital Monday after being shot accidentally in the throat and a 4-year-old child died Tuesday night at Massillon City Hospital from wounds suffered when a gun discharged after being knocked from a chair.

If you find it necessary to have a gun around the house, take every precaution to see that it's kept in a safe place.

Education in the use of firearms is commendable, and desirable, but until children are of age to properly handle such instructions see that they and guns are kept apart.

Tragedies such as those at Salem and Massillon are the result of carelessness and it would be even more tragic should they be repeated.

But Never By Popular Demand

Public sympathy belongs with the auto industry as it comes under the pop guns of would-be legislative protectors of drivers and passengers.

Everything that has made autos safer so far has been developed by auto manufacturers—and never by popular demand. Latest safety device is seat belts, yet even when these are installed as standard equipment most drivers and passengers don't use them.

Safety glass, steel tops, turn signals, defrosters, head lamps, windshield wipers, padded sun visors, back-up lights, outside rear vision mirrors, glare-resistant inside mirrors, padded instrument panels, recessed knobs, safer doors, tinted windows, automatic dimmers, windshield washers, better steering linkage, stronger brakes—all were installed on autos by voluntary action of manufacturers, never by popular demand, after against customer resistance.

The auto industry's problem continues to be what it always has been—to manufacture automotive vehicles the public will buy, consistent with what the public can use with reasonable safety.

The auto industry's history in America bristles with trial-and-error passages—the introduction of hydraulic brakes and the opposition they met, the experiment with "free wheeling" and the reasons for abandoning it, attempts to install speed-warning systems and general disregard of the systems, unsuccessful experiments with governors.

In the light of automotive evolution, some of the current big talk about grandiose plans to make over the modern auto to suit reformers' notions of what all autos should look like is preposterous.

The auto companies should go together and finance a prototype of the "Reformobile" the do-gooders have in mind. It would prove that what they have in mind is something no one would buy.

It's The Name Of The Game

If House Republican Leader Gerald R. Ford of Grand Rapids, Mich., is going to beef up his party's minority position in Congress, he had better make no more public complaints about Democratic efforts to exterminate the GOP.

Exterminating the opposition is the name of the game.

But the only way a political party can be exterminated is by its own hand; it would have to commit political suicide.

Otherwise, it must keep plugging away, doing the best it can to be an intelligent opposition party, until the voting public finally takes it into its mind to throw out the ruling rascals and throw in replacements.

The two-party system is not an exhibition of good fellowship between phony opponents who merely put on an act for the suckers—not when it's doing what it's supposed to do and has done most of the time in the United States.

It's an endless struggle to destroy the other fellow, in the belief that nothing short of all-out effort warrants popular confidence.

This is the way it always has worked in the past.

This is the way it is still working in the present. Please, won't someone tell House Republican Leader Ford the unworthiest thing he could be doing is to complain that President Johnson and his fellow Democrats are advocating one - party government.

Certainly they are. But Rep. Ford and his fellow Republicans are supposed to keep them from getting away with it. They are supposed to save their own skins and thereby to save two-party government.

That's the game. No one who's in it should knock it, least of all a party leader.

Tricks And Tools

It's a funny thing about education. When we want a furnace installed, we call a furnace man.

We go to an eye doctor for our eyes.

If our teeth need to be fixed, we call a dentist.

If we have a pain in the belly, we rely on a doctor to find out what can be done about it.

A lawyer is our choice for guidance if we fall afoul of legal barbed wire.

If our go-devel sputters, we take it to a mechanic.

We rely on politicians to do the politicking, on building contractors to put up houses, electricians to do wiring and airplane pilots to sit up front in the cockpit and drive airplanes.

In all other things, we put our faith in professionals.

And if we have the brains that God gave a goose, we let 'em alone.

The only test is whether they perform satisfactorily.

If the furnace works, our teeth don't fall out, our belly feels better, the lawyer wins the case, the car works and professionals do their work well, we don't interfere.

But not education.

Except for sciences, where we cannot pretend to know our way around, meddling in education is a way of life.

Everybody knows what history should shouldn't be mentioned, what sociology should be half-taught, what physiological truths should be distorted and how the whole thing could be done better than it is being done now by intellectuals who never should be in charge of the young in the first place.

Anybody in America is entitled to a place on a school board, except a professional educator. None need apply.

Everybody in America is consulted about education, except professional educators.

So deep does this mistrust of educators run that education not only is put in the hands of non-educators but frequently under the control of anti-educators; i.e., people absolutely and irrevocably opposed to free inquiry.

Education enables people to think for themselves and make their own judgments.

Education in the arts does for thinking individuals what education in the sciences does for mathematicians, chemists and physicists. It familiarizes them with the tricks and tools of cerebration.

But it's a funny thing about education.

Everybody is urged to have a crack at it, but not to trust the educators because they might reveal something we're supposed to be ignorant about.

Labor's Role In Freedom Fight Cited

By George Meany

America's Mr. Labor, George Meany, is today's guest columnist for Victor Riesel who is on a labor news gathering expedition in the Caribbean and Latin-America areas.

The booing and the brawls on a college campus here and there cannot hide the fact that the American people, in their vast majority, support President Johnson in his determined effort to have our country meet its international responsibilities.

American labor takes pride in the consistent, unequivocal and vigorous support which it has given to the President's basically sound foreign policies—particularly in his course towards the Viet Nam and Santo Domingo crises. We have done so out of our own experience and conviction. We realize what is a stake in these bitter tests of will and strength and we know the nature, aims and methods of Communism.

The membership and leadership of the AFL-CIO have a deep sense of responsibility as citizens and as trade unionists. American labor has demonstrated this responsibility through its active efforts to help make our country's foreign policy democratic and ever more effective.

WHAT IS MORE, it has been tireless in carrying the message of freedom to the workers of every continent, creed and color.

American labor has combined words with deeds by helping these workers organize themselves into free trade unions capable of providing sound and strong forces for the promotion of human dignity, democracy and social justice in their respective countries.

On the occasion of the last Lincoln's birthday luncheon at the White House, President Johnson very appropriately remarked that "history and our own achievements have . . . thrust upon us the principal responsibility for the protection of freedom on earth. . . No other people in no other time has had so great an opportunity to work and risk for the peace and the freedom of all mankind."

Organized labor in the United States has always known that its very existence depends on democracy. American labor has secured great social, economic and political achievements through devotion to and reliance on the democratic processes.

Thanks, in no small measure to American labor's all-out support of democracy against Fascism, Nazism, Falangism, Peronism, Communism and every other type of tranny, the workers of many other lands are increasingly turning away from totalitarian movements and rallying to the cause of freedom.

WHAT IS this freedom that is so vital to our survival as citizens of a democracy and as trade unionists? To the AFL-CIO, freedom is more than a multiple-party system with free and secret universal suffrage for men and women of every race, color, religion, and national origin. In the philosophy of American labor, freedom is a way of life.

Experience has taught that any movement which opposes freedom of association, conscience and worship, any government which denies its people these basic human rights, any regime which prohibits free trade unions is hopelessly reactionary—regardless of how radical it may pretend to be or how revolutionary its slogans may sound.

The Communist movement, Communist regimes, and those who knowingly support them are really ultra-reactionary. They are the worst enemies of freedom and social justice.

100 Million Tons Of Shipping Seen For Ohio River

CINCINNATI (AP)—Officials are anticipating that 100 million tons of cargo will be shipped on the Ohio River this year. If so, it will mark the first time the Ohio has reached that mark in one year.

The mark was nearly made last year when 96,371,713 tons of commercial shipping was sent on the Ohio, the U. S. Army Engineers reported Tuesday.

"Assuming no major economic downturn, I think it can safely be said that river traffic this year will top 100 million tons," said Brig. Gen. Walter P. Leber, Ohio River division Army engineer.

Ton mileage, based on the transport of one ton of cargo over one mile of river, recorded a gain of more than one billion last year. The 1964 total was 21,324,562,671 compared to 20,140,292,998 in 1963.

When Ellis Island finally came into the hands of the United States government, it served as an artillery garrison and arsenal before becoming the chief immigration station in 1892.

Viet Nam

stroyed 20 buildings and damaged six others.

Fourteen South Vietnamese and American planes joined forces today to attack the Minh Son army barracks about 30 miles northwest of Vinh, the spokesmen said. The pilots reported destroying two buildings and damaging two others.

Other damage claimed by raiders on North Viet Nam included:

The Bom XA staging area, 55 miles southwest of Vinh, direct hits on numerous structures in the motor pool and support areas; a radar installation 7 miles north of the border, destroyed; the Ban Ban and Qui Chau ferry installations 110 miles southwest of Hanoi, moderate damage; a military supply depot 30 miles southeast of Vinh, destroyed; approaches to two river crossings in the same area, cratered; the Bom Ron Xa staging area 55 miles southwest of Vinh, heavily cratered.

All planes returned safely, spokesmen said.

The spokesmen said a militia force reported finding 21 Viet Cong bodies in an area about 70 miles southwest of Saigon that was strafed Tuesday by two U.S. planes.

They said South Vietnamese forces also claimed they had killed 15 Viet Cong and captured two others during an operation 15 miles southwest of Saigon. Government losses were given as one killed and eight wounded.

The remaining 2,900 men of the U.S. 1st Division's 2nd Brigade began landing from the troopship Gordon at Vung Tay, 40 miles southeast of Saigon, and Air Force C130 transports were flying them to Bien Hoa to build up American strength around the big air base 15 miles north of the capital.

The first 1,000 men of the brigade went ashore Monday at Cam Ranh Bay, a big harbor 180 miles northeast of Saigon where U.S. Army engineers are establishing a major base.

The men from the "Big Red One" will bring U.S. troop strength around the Bien Hoa base to about 7,000 men. About 800 Australians also are stationed there.

Johnson

The measure as passed by the House would ban the use of state poll taxes in state or local elections. The Senate's version of the bill would not ban them, but would call for a quick court test on them. The President said he hopes the conferees can "agree on satisfactory language that will give us the most effective repeal provision that is obtainable and that we think can be supported in the courts." He said he is against the poll tax and would like to see it repealed.

CIVIL RIGHTS — Asked about comments by some Republican leaders who "have suggested that over the years you have changed your position on civil rights," Johnson said, "I am going to try to provide all of the leadership that I can, notwithstanding the fact that someone may point to a mistake or 100 mistakes that I made in my past."

Following announcement of Marshall's nomination, Sens. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., and Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., applauded his record on the Circuit Court of Appeals to which he was appointed by President John F. Kennedy on Sept. 23, 1961. Marshall served under a recess appointment and was not confirmed until Sept. 11, 1962. At that time 16 Southern Democrats voted against him.

In announcing the appointment of Marshall, Johnson noted that the nominee will be taking a reduction in salary. He draws $33,000 yearly as a circuit judge, will get $28,000 as solicitor general.

Marks was employed in various positions in the Federal Communications Commission, including assistant to the general counsel, and was appointed by Kennedy as one of the original incorporators of the Communications Satellite Corp.

The nominee served as attorney for the Johnson radio-television interests in Texas when Mrs. Johnson placed her holdings in trust.

Dirksen made no comment on Marks' qualifications for his new job. Mansfield said he does not know the nominee well but assumed that Johnson had found him qualified for the post. Holland said, "I never heard of him."

shows the congestion is not as bad as it was the first few days after the new plan went into operation.

Council said it is considering extra traffic lights at 3d St. and Railroad Lane and the painting of yellow lines and erection of signs at 3d, 4th and 5th Sts., indicating no parking during shift change hours.

Crucible officials said some improvements in the parking lots, such as cable changes, will begin being made this weekend.

Two Cars Involved In Hancock Collision

Hancock County sheriff's deputies today reported an auto accident which occurred Tuesday on Swearingen Hill Rd., south of New Cumberland.

A 1956 vehicle driven by Lucille V. Clegg, 36, of Weirton R.D. 1 was struck in the right rear fender by a 1965 sedan operated by Eileen June Collins, 19, of New Cumberland R.D. 1.

Deputies said the Clegg vehicle was obscured by trees as it was turning around in the roadway as the other car approached.

Damage of $150 to each car was estimated.

Ohio

als to revamp Ohio's welfare programs and procedures but includes no increases in payments to welfare recipients.

Among other things, the bill:

—Transfers the state aid for the aged program to county welfare departments.

—Abolishes city welfare authorities.

—Eestablishes uniform standards for all 88 counties.

An estimated 39,000 state employes would receive boosts in pay of five to fifteen per cent under the House - passed pay raise bill which Democrats tried to amend without success.

Sen. Danny D. Johnson, D-Tuscarawas, offered an amendment that would have boosted the pay of all state employes by an additional five per cent at a cost estimated at $15 million the first year and $25 million the second.

Across the statehouse, the way was cleared for a floor vote Thursday on the long-awaited school foundation bill. It would add an estimated $100 million in state support for schools in the 1965-67 biennium, bringing the total to a record $625 million.

The House passed and sent to the Senate bills to create a 12-member Retirement Commission to oversee investment policies of the state retirement systems and give the workmen's compensation fund the same power on real estate investments as the retirement systems.

Representatives completed passage on Senate bills authorizing direct payments for nursing home care of aged pensioners, clarifying laws banning solicitation for an act of sexual perversion, and permitting townships to share in the cost of street light improvements.

The House approved an immediately effective emergency clause inserted by the Senate in a bill creating single boards of education in Fayette and Morgan Counties to replace all present boards.

Passed by the Senate were bills setting uniform licensing and inspection laws for milk processors, haulers, and dairy facilities, and increasing the penalty for human torture.

A Senate-approved resolution calls for a change in the U.S. Constitution requiring the federal government to return a fixed amount of income tax revenue to the states.

Even a 120-year-old is a mere whippersnapper compared to some tortoises. Claims of tortoises living 300 years and more cannot be authenticated, but one famous Marion's tortoise lived on the Indian Ocean island of Mauritius from 1766 to 1918 when it was accidentally killed at the age of 152.

In recent years, forest - based industries have accounted for one of every 20 jobs in the U.S. labor force and for $1 of every $20 of national income.

Court Suspends Penalty Of Youth

Ralph Arthur Ammon, 18, of 1907 Buckeye Ave., Wellsville was given a suspended $25 fine today in Municipal Court after he pleaded guilty to a charge of operating a motor scooter without a driver's license.

The court suspended both the fine and the costs on condition the youth obtains a driver's license "immediately." He was cited by the State Highway Patrol July 5 on Commerce St., Wellsville.

Bruce D. Smith, 222 W. 7th St., was fined $10 and costs when he pleaded guilty to operating an auto with an illegal muffler. He was cited at 12:20 a. m. today on W. 5th St.

Norman L. Carroll of R.D. 3 was fined $15 and costs on a charge of failure to stop in the assured clear distance He was cited by the patrol following a traffic mishap Monday on County Rd. 430.

Lisbon Joins Planner Unit

LISBON — Lisbon has become the third community in Columbiana County to join the two-year-old county Regional Planning Commission.

Lisbon Council has voted unanimously to join the planning commission, which has completed a countywide survey and is expanding its activities into new planning stages, including industrial development, higher education, a new county airport and recreation facilities.

East Liverpool and Columbiana previously had been the only communities to actively join and financially support the commission which received $6,000 from the Columbiana County Commissioners for 1965.

The fee for Lisbon for the first year will be one cent per person in the village, or about $35, and from 5 to 8 cents per person later.

Councilman Robert Kelm made the recommendation the village enroll. The move has been under consideration since June when Robert Williams, former president of the Chamber of Commerce, suggested the action.

Lisbon Joins Planner Unit

LISBON — Lisbon has become the third community in Columbiana County to join the two-year-old county Regional Planning Commission.

Lisbon Council has voted unanimously to join the planning commission, which has completed a countywide survey and is expanding its activities into new planning stages, including industrial development, higher education, a new county airport and recreation facilities.

East Liverpool and Columbiana previously had been the only communities to actively join and financially support the commission which received $6,000 from the Columbiana County Commissioners for 1965.

The fee for Lisbon for the first year will be one cent per person in the village, or about $35, and from 5 to 8 cents per person later.

Councilman Robert Kelm made the recommendation the village enroll. The move has been under consideration since June when Robert Williams, former president of the Chamber of Commerce, suggested the action.

Nationals Take 18-17 All-Star Edge

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ 46,000 See Americans Bow, 6-5

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

MINNEAPOLIS-ST. PAUL (AP) — The most frustated man in baseball today must be Joe Cronin. If he isn't, he should be.

Since he took office as president in 1959, his American League has won only two of 11 All-Star Games while tying one. In the same span, the league has lost four of six World Series.

Genial Joe squirmed in the heat Tuesday while the National League once again turned back his American All-Stars 6-5, despite blowing a 5-0 lead.

It marked the fifth straight defeat for the Americans in All-Star and World Series competition.

The National League, which once wanted to call the whole thing of when it found itself trailing 12 games to 4, has taken a lead for the first time since the competition began in 1933.

The victory, their seventh in the last eight decisions, has given the Nationals an over-all 18-17 lead.

The Nationals simply had too many guns Tuesday. They outhit the Americans 11 to 8 and out-homered them three to two.

Then, when they needed stout pitching after the Americans had made up a five-run deficit, they called on World Series hero Bob Gibson. The St. Louis right-hander stopped the Americans in their tracks.

With the Nationals ahead again 6-5, Gibson came in to pitch the last two innings. After giving up a leadoff double to Tony Oliva in the ninth, raising the hopes of the 46,706 American League partisans, Gibson quickly dashed them by setting down the next three hitters, two on strikeouts.

The crusher was his whiffing of Harmon Killebrew, the Minnesota strong boy whose fifth-inning two-run homer had tied the score 5-5.

As he has done in so many previous All-Star Games, Willie Mays took the spotlight.

The San Francisco wonder boy, unmindful of a painful bruise on his right hip — a souvenir of a home plate collision at Philadelphia Saturday night — opened the game with a home run. It was hit off starter Milt Pappas, Baltimore Oriole right-hander.

Willie didn't get any more hits in his leadoff role, but he walked twice and one of those walks developed into the winning run.

That came about in the seventh inning when he coaxed a pass off Cleveland left-hander Sam McDowell, raced to third on Hank Aaron's single, remained there while Roberto Clemente grounded into a force play and ambled home on Ron Santo's crazily bouncing single over second base.

For two innings, it looked like a breeze for the National League. Taking their cue from Mays, Milwaukee's Joe Torre and Pittsburgh's Willie Stargell followed with homers, each with a man aboard, and before the Americans had their first hit, the Nationals had a 5-0 lead.

In the meantime, the Americans, led by Al Lopez of the Chicago White Sox, could do little with Juan Marichal, the National League starter. The 26-year-old San Francisco right-hander faced only nine men in his three innings. He gave up a single to Vic Davalillo of Cleveland, but the center fielder was erased on a double play.

It was not until the fourth inning, with Jim Maloney of the Cincinnati Reds on the mound, that the Americans finally came to life.

They scored their first run on a walk and singles by Dick McAuliffe of Detroit and Rocky Colavito of Cleveland. Then came the big fifth when the Americans tied the score with four runs.

McAuliffe accounted for the first two with a 400-foot homer over the center field fence. It scored Minnesota's Jimmie Hall, who had walked. Mays ran into the fence in a vain attempt to keep the ball inside the park and jarred his injured right hip.

Brooks Robinson of Baltimore followed McAuliffe's homer with a single and trotted home ahead of Killebrew's 410-foot drive into the pavilion in left center. Mays didn't even bother to turn around to see where that ball was going.

The National used six pitchers to five for the losers. Sandy Koufax, who pitched the sixth inning, was credited with the victory. The Los Angeles Dodgers' southpaw, far from sharp after pitching a complete game Sunday, walked two but worked himself out of trouble.

Don Drysdale of the Dodgers and Dick Farrell of the Houston Astros also saw action for the Nationals. After Pappas the Americans used Jim Grant of Minnesota. Pete Richert of Washington, McDowell and Ed Fisher of Chicago. McDowell was charged with the defeat.

THINGS WEREN'T so good for this dejected looking Al Lopez whose American League All-Stars trailed the Nationals 5-0 in the second inning. The game brightened for Lopez later as the Americans bounced back to tie the game at 5-5 before losing it, 6-5. (UPI Telephoto)

Mays Plays Usual Key Role In Game

Associated Press Sports Writer

MINNEAPOLIS-ST. PAUL (AP) — Willie Mays came to the All-Star Game with a painful bruise and without his batting helmet. But when he left he had accomplished the usual—hit a homer, scored the winning run, set two records and managed to squeeze in his fence-crashing act.

Sharing the spotlight with San Francisco teammate Juan Marichal in the voting for the most valuable player, Mays played his usual key role as the National League edged the Americans 6-5 Tuesday and took the lead in the series.

Mays cracked Milt Pappas' second pitch of the game for his third All-Star homer and 21st hit, breaking a tie with Stan Musial for the all-time high in the hit category.

In the seventh inning, Mays led off with a walk and then scored the run that broke a 5-5 tie after singles by Hank Aaron and Ron Santo. The two runs brought Mays' total to 18 in All-Star play, extending his own record.

In the eighth inning, with two on and one out, Dick McAuliffe tagged a long liner toward center. Mays took one step, slipped, then started racing back and made a lunging one-hand catch.

"I don't mind telling you I was scared to death," Mays said in the dressing room "I didn't misjudge it, but I slipped as I started to go back."

What about in the fifth inning when he chased McAuliffe's homer into the center field fence, leaping against it in a futile attempt to make the catch?

"I didn't think it was going over," Mays explained. "I know when I jump, I can get up over the fence, so I thought I had a chance."

Mays hit the fence with such force that he bruised the right side he injured in a home plate collision at Philadelphia Saturday night.

Mays might not have known what he was doing, but Marichal did, edging Willie in the most valuble player balloting 46-45.

The high-kicking right-hander stopped the American League on one hit through the first three inning, easily the most effective performance of the 11 pitchers used in the game.

But he did experience some difficulty with the height of the mound, slipping to the ground on his first pitch before realizing what the trouble was.

Mauch, Lopez Would Like To Meet Again Next Year

By LEW FERGUSON

MINNEAPOLIS-ST. PAUL (AP) — Gene Mauch and Al Lopez, who managed this year's All-Star Game by default, would like to face each other again next year — but this time on their own.

Mauch won in his rookie try while Lopez suffered his fifth loss without a victory Tuesday as the National League edged the American League 6-5 and took a one-game lead in the 36-game All-Star series.

"I'll be more than happy to keep trying to beat them," said Lopez, "if we (the Chicago White Sox) can win a pennant and put me in the game again."

Asked how it felt to help put the National League ahead by one game, Mauch of the Philadelphia Phillies said:

"Good, but not as good as it would feel to manage the team that puts them two games ahead."

Both Mauch and Lopez were substitutes this year. Their teams each missed winning pennants by one game in 1964, but both became the All-Star managers when Johnny Kean of St. Louis and Yogi Berra of the New York Yankees changed leagues.

Following their first encounter, Mauch said his team "would have thought of another way to win it if they hadn't won it the way they did."

Lopez called it a "heck of a good game, a good show which either side might have won."

The home run hitting of Willie Mays, Joe Torre and Willie Stargell plus the pitching of Juan Marichal and Bob Gibson dominated postgame discussions in the NL dressing room.

But an infield bounder which took two crazy hops after leaving the bat of Ron Santo of the Chicago Cubs in the seventh inning had the American Leaguers shaking their heads.

The blow went for an infield single and scored Mays from third with the game's winning run.

Sam McDowell of Cleveland, the pitcher at the time, said:

"We should have had an easy double play on it...until it started taking those goofy hops. It had some top spin on it, and it looked like it hit something.

"It was an inside slider that Santo hit—a good pitch. It bounced over me, and it bounced over Bobby Richardson. By the time it got to Zoilo Versalles it was too late."

Florists Win On One-Hitter By Goodballet

Mike Goodballet hurled a neat one-hitter in Riverview's 6-1 victory over the Realtors Tuesday in the Colt League.

After giving up one run in the first inning, Goodballet settled down to blank the Realtors the remainder of the way.

Riverview backed the right-hander with 10 hits including a triple and double by Bob Pancake. Klembara was charged with the loss and Skip Hasala collected the only hit off Goodballet.

Defensively, Caruso made an outstanding catch of a line drive and turned it into a double play.

Nationals Take 18-17 All-Star Edge

★ ★ ★ 46,000 See Americans Bow, 6-5 ★ ★ ★

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

MINNEAPOLIS-ST. PAUL (AP) — The most frustated man in baseball today must be Joe Cronin. If he isn't, he should be.

Since he took office as president in 1959, his American League has won only two of 11 All-Star Games while tying one. In the same span, the league has lost four of six World Series.

Genial Joe squirmed in the heat Tuesday while the National League once again turned back his American All-Stars 6-5, despite blowing a 5-0 lead.

It marked the fifth straight defeat for the Americans in All-Star and World Series competition.

The National League, which once wanted to call the whole thing of when it found itself trailing 12 games to 4, has taken a lead for the first time since the competition began in 1933.

The victory, their seventh in the last eight decisions, has given the Nationals an over-all 18-17 lead.

The Nationals simply had too many guns Tuesday. They outhit the Americans 11 to 8 and out-homered them three to two.

Then, when they needed stout pitching after the Americans had made up a five-run deficit, they called on World Series hero Bob Gibson. The St. Louis right-hander stopped the Americans in their tracks.

With the Nationals ahead again 6-5, Gibson came in to pitch the last two innings. After giving up a leadoff double to Tony Oliva in the ninth, raising the hopes of the 46,706 American League partisans, Gibson quickly dashed them by setting down the next three hitters, two on strikeouts.

The crusher was his whiffing of Harmon Killebrew, the Minnesota strong boy whose fifth-inning two-run homer had tied the score 5-5.

As he has done in so many previous All-Star Games, Willie Mays took the spotlight.

The San Francisco wonder boy, unmindful of a painful bruise on his right hip — a souvenir of a home plate collision at Philadelphia Saturday night — opened the game with a home run. It was hit off starter Milt Pappas, Baltimore Oriole right-hander.

Willie didn't get any more hits in his leadoff role, but he walked twice and one of those walks developed into the winning run.

That came about in the seventh inning when he coaxed a pass off Cleveland left-hander Sam McDowell, raced to third on Hank Aaron's single, remained there while Roberto Clemente grounded into a force play and ambled home on Ron Santo's crazily bouncing single over second base.

For two innings, it looked like a breeze for the National League. Taking their cue from Mays, Milwaukee's Joe Torre and Pittsburgh's Willie Stargell followed with homers, each with a man aboard, and before the Americans had their first hit, the Nationals had a 5-0 lead.

In the meantime, the Americans, led by Al Lopez of the Chicago White Sox, could do little with Juan Marichal, the National League starter. The 25-year-old San Francisco right-hander faced only nine men in his three innings. He gave up a single to Vic Davalillo of Cleveland, but the center fielder was erased on a double play.

It was not until the fourth inning, with Jim Maloney of the Cincinnati Reds on the mound, that the Americans finally came to life.

They scored their first run on a walk and singles by Dick McAuliffe of Detroit and Rocky Colavito of Cleveland. Then came the big fifth when the Americans tied the score with four runs.

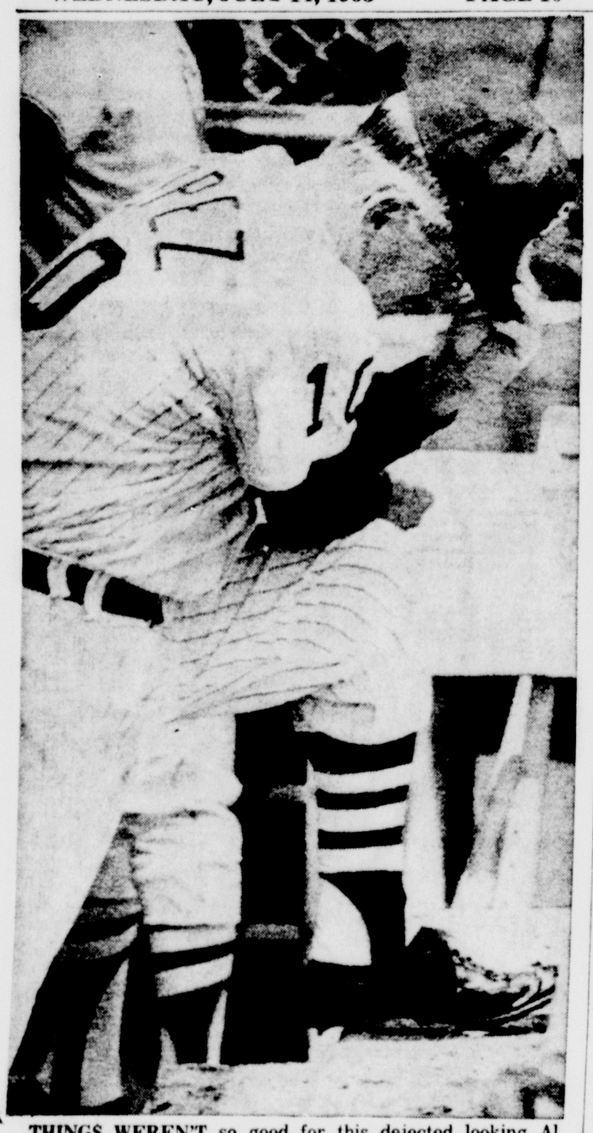
Brooks Robinson of Baltimore followed McAuliffe's homer with a single and trotted home ahead of Killebrew's 410-foot drive into the pavilion in left center. Mays didn't even bother to turn around to see where that ball was going.

The National used six pitchers to five for the losers. Sandy Koufax, who pitched the sixth inning, was credited with the victory. The Los Angeles Dodgers' southpaw, far from sharp after pitching a complete game Sunday, walked two but worked himself out of trouble.

Don Drysdale of the Dodgers and Dick Farrell of the Houston Astros also saw action for the Nationals. After Pappas the Americans used Jim Grant of Minnesota, Pete Richert of Washington, McDowell and Ed Fisher of Chicago. McDowell was charged with the defeat.



THINGS WEREN'T so good for this dejected looking Al Lopez whose American League All-Stars trailed the Nationals 5-0 in the second inning. The game brightened for Lopez later as the Americans bounced back to tie the game at 5-5 before losing it, 6-5. (UPI Telephoto)

Linville was the winning pitcher and scattered six hits while fanning nine. His mound opponent — Kuczinski — struck out 12 batters while giving eight hits.

Parfitt and Kuczinski had two hits each for Potters.

Woodbine, Burbick's Defeat Pony Loop Foes

Woodbine won a pitcher's battle in edging George Bright's 4-0 while Burbick's scored a 6-victory over Litten's in Tuesday's Pony League action.

Bernard Lovejoy only allowed three hits in hurling Woodbine to the winner's circle as he fanned 13 batters.

Lovejoy also paced his team at the plate with three hits in three trips as Steve Flannigan, the losing hurler, gave up five safeties.

Woodbine scored its lone run in the fourth inning on a single by Doughty. Steffen's triple was the big blow for Bright's.

Jim Musuraca gave up three hits in Burbick's triumph over Litten's. While fanning seven batters he gave up six walks.

A home run by Howell in the 6th inning proved a big blow for the winners. Howell, Berhard, Musuraca and Lacy collected two hits each to lead Burbick's 10-hit attack. Eckles was the losing pitcher.

2 Qualifiers Share Lead In Ohio Amateur

By HAL PARIS
Associated Press Sports Writer

MANSFIELD, Ohio (AP) — Youthful C. Ross Bartschy Jr., who has tasted victory many times, and unheralded Paul Korbas of Shelby, set out today in quest of medalist honors in the 59th annual Ohio Amateur Golf Tournament.

Bartschy, the 17 - year - old flash from Upper Arlington, and Korbas, a 30-year-old printing press operator, carved out one-under-par 71s Tuesday to share the lead in the first 18-hole qualifying round of the tournament.

Today's second qualifying test was to set the stage for gruelling 36-holes of match play Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Only 64 spots are open to the huge field of 224. Tournament officials predicted a score of 156 would be needed to stay in contention.

Bartschy, who won the state high school title a year ago and led Upper Arlington to the team championship this year, also has annexed the Central Ohio District Amateur and his area's Jaycee junior crown.

Korbas, father of three who has been playing golf since he was 13, is making his third try in the Amateur. He missed the cutoff in his two previous efforts.

Al Hager of Mansfield led a contingent of four golfers who were able to match par on the Westbrook Country Club's 6,414-yard course.

Hager, who is in the insurance business, holds the course record of 63 which he set 24 years ago when only 17.

Also at 72 were Ohio State ace Alex Antonio Jr. of Hubbard, Dr. Mel Woelfling of Toledo and Don Nist of Canton.

Four former Amateur titlists, Dan Carmichael of Columbus, Walter Stahl of Cleveland, Tony Blom of Cincinnati and Bob Bourne of Oberlin posted 77s. Former champion Ed Preisler of Cleveland came in with a 74.

Tuesday's action was spiced by a hole-in-one registered by Jerry Dennis of Columbus. Dennis, 33, got his ace on the 152-yard No. 6 with a seven-iron, but finished with an 83.

Other top Tuesday scores:

Newell Wins On 2-Hitter By McNichol

Gary McNichol had his no-hitter spoiled in the seventh inning as Newell walked off with a 17-2 victory over Frankfort in a South Side Senior Division game Tuesday.

McNichol hurled no-hit ball for six innings before giving up two hits for two runs. He fanned 12 batters and only issued one walk.

Rich Gogol and Craig Whittington led Newell's 12-hit attack with three hits each while McNichol helped his own cause with two hits.

L. Roach tripled to drive in one run for Frankfort.

Pittsburgh Golfer Holds Tourney Lead

PITTSBURGH (AP) — If Stan Poploski, 43-year- old Pittsburgh real estate salesman, goes all the way in the National Public Links Golf Tournament he could become the first man to ride to a top amateur golf title on a pair of roller skates.

After establishing himself as the man to beat by firing a 73-71—144 to pace a trimmed field of 64 players into the match play that starts today, Poploski shrugged off the belief that an older man would fold after several days of trudging the North Park golf course's steep, roller coaster hills.

"Heck no. I roller skate twice a week. Me and my wife both do. It's great for the legs," said Poploski, who is making his 10th try for a National Publinx.

Poploski, who matched North Park's par 36-35—71 with one bogey and one birdie on the card, said the prospect of 36-hole quarter-final and final rounds didn't bother him at all.

Despite Poploski's stamina, the betting was still heavily on the "youngsters" who were breathing down his neck during Tuesday's second 18-hole qualifying round.

It took a score of 154 to make the cutoff for match play.

A no-hit game was turned in by Frank Paytors as the league leading Chester Merchants pounded out a 10-0 victory over Hancock Savings Tuesday in the Chester Softball League.

Only two opponents reached base off Paytors, one by an error and the other was hit by the pitcher.

Scafide's Carry Out topped Monaca's Bama Inn, 7-1, in an exhibition game as Don Poole hurled a two - hitter. Dawson, Martin and McCauley all homered for the Scafide's.

Browns Call Vets To Camp

HIRAM, Ohio (AP) — Cleveland Browns' veterans arrive at their Hiram College training camp today for roll-call and physical examinations.

The serious work starts Friday when the 42 returning veterans and the remaining rookies start bumping heads in preparation for the College All-Star tilt Aug. 6 in Chicago

Eight Cleveland hopefuls were cut Tuesday and six more have to go to get the rookie roster down to 60 by Thursday.

The cut included the Browns' fifth draft choice last winter, Billy Irwin, 6-foot-5, 235-pound former University of Mississippi tackle. He dropped off the list voluntarily, but signed for the 1966 season.

Waivers were asked on linebackers George Shafer of Findlay, Ohio, and Larry Pugh of Newcastle, Pa.

Terry Sieg of Charlottsville, Va., Richard Brindley of Warren, Ohio, Stan Morgan of Arlington, Va., Paul Rodman of Cleveland, and Ron Rewald of Milwaukee also were cut.

Newell Wins On 2-Hitter By McNichol

Gary McNichol had his no-hitter spoiled in the seventh inning as Newell walked off with a 17-2 victory over Frankfort in a South Side Senior Division game Tuesday.

McNichol hurled no-hit ball for six innings before giving up two hits for two runs. He fanned 12 batters and only issued one walk.

Rich Gogol and Craig Whittington led Newell's 12-hit attack with three hits each while McNichol helped his own cause with two hits.

L. Roach tripled to drive in one run for Frankfort.

Pittsburgh Golfer Holds Tourney Lead

PITTSBURGH (AP) — If Stan Poploski, 43-year- old Pittsburgh real estate salesman, goes all the way in the National Public Links Golf Tournament he could become the first man to ride to a top amateur golf title on a pair of roller skates.

After establishing himself as the man to beat by firing a 73-71—144 to pace a trimmed field of 64 players into the match play that starts today, Poploski shrugged off the belief that an older man would fold after several days of trudging the North Park golf course's steep, roller coaster hills.

"Heck no. I roller skate twice a week. Me and my wife both do. It's great for the legs," said Poploski, who is making his 10th try for a National Publinx.

Poploski, who matched North Park's par 36-35—71 with one bogey and one birdie on the card, said the prospect of 36-hole quarter-final and final rounds didn't bother him at all.

Despite Poploski's stamina, the betting was still heavily on the "youngsters" who were breathing down his neck during Tuesday's second 18-hole qualifying round.

It took a score of 154 to make the cutoff for match play.

Paytors Records No-Hit Game In Chester League

A no-hit game was turned in by Frank Paytors as the league leading Chester Merchants pounded out a 10-0 victory over Hancock Savings Tuesday in the Chester Softball League.

Only two opponents reached base off Paytors, one by an error and the other was hit by the pitcher.

Scafide's Carry Out topped Monaca's Bama Inn, 7-1, in an exhibition game as Don Poole hurled a two - hitter. Dawson, Martin and McCauley all homered for the Scafide's.

Scafide's and Gallagher's meet today in a league contest.

Browns Call Vets To Camp

HIRAM, Ohio (AP) — Cleveland Browns' veterans arrive at their Hiram College training camp today for roll-call and physical examinations.

The serious work starts Friday when the 42 returning veterans and the remaining rookies start bumping heads in preparation for the College All-Star tilt Aug. 6 in Chicago

Eight Cleveland hopefuls were cut Tuesday and six more have to go to get the rookie roster down to 60 by Thursday.

The cut included the Browns' fifth draft choice last winter, Billy Irwin, 6-foot-5, 235-pound former University of Mississippi tackle. He dropped off the list voluntarily, but signed for the 1966 season.

Waivers were asked on linebackers George Shafer of Findlay, Ohio, and Larry Pugh of Newcastle, Pa.

Terry Sieg of Charlottsville, Va., Richard Brindley of Warren, Ohio, Stan Morgan of Arlington, Va., Paul Rodman of Cleveland, and Ron Rewald of Milwaukee also were cut.

2 Horses Destroyed

SALEM, N.H. (AP) — Shutter Spy and Cutting Humor were destroyed at Rockingham Park race track after they broke down in the sixth race Tuesday. Jockeys Mario Beneito and Jack Kurtz were thrown but escaped serious injury.

10,000 Meter Record Clarke's Goal Today

OSLO, Norway (AP) — Ron Clarke of Australia will try to shatter the 28-minute barrier for the 10,000-meter run today in the opening of a two-day international track and field meet at Bislet Stadiu.

Clarke will be out to beat his own pending world record of 28.14.0. The record for the distance of about 6 miles was set in Turku, Finland last June 16.

Completion Of Jury Due In Trial Of Jim Brown

CLEVELAND (AP)—Completion of a jury was expected today in the trial of professional football star Jim Brown on an assault and battery charge brought by an 18-year-old girl.

Jury selection was delayed more than two hours Tuesday while the judge conferred with attorneys about mysterious telephone calls the girl said she received. The tentative jury included six women and five men.

Albert Corsi, an assistant police prosecutor, ordered a 24-hour police guard for the accuser, Miss Brenda Ayres, until the trial ends. The prosecutor, one of two handling the case in Municipal Court, said the guard was placed because of alleged telephone threats the girl said she received at her East Side home Monday night.

Miss Ayres has accused Brown of slapping her in a Clevland motel room June 20. Judge Blanche Krupansky was told during a conference one of the three calls the slender, bespectacled teen-ager allegedly received was from Brown.

One of Brown's attorneys, Norman Minor, said his client knew nothing about a telephone call.

Brown, 29-year-old fullback for the Cleveland Browns, has pleaded innocent to the charge and asked for the jury trial, which began Monday. He was due to report today to his team's training camp in Hiram, Ohio.

Conviction would mean a maximum penalty of six months in jail and a $200 fine.

Goldwater Boat Trip Nears End

BRIDGE CANYON, Ariz. (AP)—Barry Goldwater's 312-mile boat trip down the Colorado River, retracing the route of an adventure undertaken in 1939, is nearing an end.

The rapids became so rough at one point, Goldwater reported, that a helicopter airlifted the boats over sharp rocks.

The trip began July 1 near the Utah border.

Youth, 14, Drowns

PAINESVILLE, Ohio (AP)—Robert O'Neal, 14, drowned when he tried to swim across the Chagrin River in Eastlake Tuesday night. A companion, Robert Long, 16, was pulled from the water by an elderly man.

McCall Will Name Cup Team To Face Mexico

Two of Mexico's top players Rafael Osuna and Antonio Palafox, have played scores of matches at MacCall's Los Angeles Tennis Club.

MacCall's observations have led him to conclude "that the best possible American team must be ready when the two countries square off in Dallas beginning July 31."

MacCall, who arrived on the scene at the National Clay Court Tennis Championships Tuesday, announced that he will name a six-man squad "no later than Friday."

Picking the team, however, is going to be quite a problem, according to MacCall. He said: "There are a few things that I have to mull over in my mind before reaching any decisions. And before the week is over, I should have the answers."

The answers will be provided by the 16 players left in the men's division of the tournament. All eight seeded players have survived the first two rounds.

It's a safe bet, MacCall says, "that at least one player not even in contention for the Cup could be picked."

One such player, Stan Smith of Pasadena, Calif., a sophomore at UCLA, is going to get the once over by MacCall. Smith plays seventh-seeded Clark Graebner of Beachwood, Ohio, Wednesday, and if Smith wins, he'll have to be considered a darkhorse candidate.

The only thing definite in MacCall's mind is that Dennis Ralston of Bakersfield, Calif., the nation's top ranked player, and Ham Richardson of Dallas, have the inside track to being named to the doubles team.

Canadian Open Golf Classic Opens Today

TORONTO (AP) — The $100,000 Canadian Open Golf Tournament headed into its first round today with Jack Nicklaus and Arnold Palmer assured of at least one thing — bountiful galleries.

The field of 144 teed off with the prospect of morning showers but partly sunny skies by afternoon. Nicklaus and Palmer were early-afternoon starters.

Both arrived Tuesday and played a casual practice round in which no scores were kept.

Rochester Gains 12th Win In Last 16 IL Contests

By The Associated Press

Can a team win the International League pennant from 16 games back?

The odds are overwhelmingly against it but the Rochester Red Wings apparently are going to give it a try. The Wings defeated Buffalo 4-3 Tuesday night for their 12th victory in their last 16 starts.

Rochester occupies sixth place in the standings with a 42-48 record and is 16 games behind league-leading Columbus.

In other games, Columbus stretched its winning streak to six games by whipping Jacksonville 7-1, Toledo nipped Atlanta 1-0 and Syracuse stopped Toronto 3-2.

Dooley Womack pitched a three-hitter for Toledo as the Mudhens beat the Crackers for the 10th time in 14 games.

Completion Of Jury Due In Trial Of Jim Brown

CLEVELAND (AP)—Completion of a jury was expected today in the trial of professional football star Jim Brown on an assault and battery charge brought by an 18-year-old girl.

Jury selection was delayed more than two hours Tuesday while the judge conferred with attorneys about mysterious telephone calls the girl said she received. The tentative jury included six women and five men.

Albert Corsi, an assistant police prosecutor, ordered a 24-hour police guard for the accuser, Miss Brenda Ayres, until the trial ends. The prosecutor, one of two handling the case in Municipal Court, said the guard was placed because of alleged telephone threats the girl said she received at her East Side home Monday night.

Miss Ayres has accused Brown of slapping her in a Clevland motel room June 20. Judge Blanche Krupansky was told during a conference one of the three calls the slender, bespectacled teen-ager allegedly received was from Brown.

One of Brown's attorneys, Norman Minor, said his client knew nothing about a telephone call.

Brown, 29-year-old fullback for the Cleveland Browns, has pleaded innocent to the charge and asked for the jury trial, which began Monday. He was due to report today to his team's training camp in Hiram, Ohio.

Among the courtroom spectators Tuesday were Brown's wife, Sue, and his mother.

Conviction would mean a maximum penalty of six months in jail and a $200 fine.

Goldwater Boat Trip Nears End

BRIDGE CANYON, Ariz. (AP)—Barry Goldwater's 312-mile boat trip down the Colorado River, retracing the route of an adventure undertaken in 1939, is nearing an end.

The rapids became so rough at one point, Goldwater reported, that a helicopter airlifted the boats over sharp rocks.

Youth, 14, Drowns

PAINESVILLE, Ohio (AP)—Robert O'Neal, 14, drowned when he tried to swim across the Chagrin River in Eastlake Tuesday night. A companion, Robert Long, 16, was pulled from the water by an elderly man.

McCall Will Name Cup Team To Face Mexico

Two of Mexico's top players Rafael Osuna and Antonio Palafox, have played scores of matches at MacCall's Los Angeles Tennis Club.

MacCall's observations have led him to conclude "that the best possible American team must be ready when the two countries square off in Dallas beginning July 31."

MacCall, who arrived on the scene at the National Clay Court Tennis Championships Tuesday, announced that he will name a six-man squad "no later than Friday."

Picking the team, however, is going to be quite a problem, according to MacCall. He said: "There are a few things that I have to mull over in my mind before reaching any decisions. And before the week is over, I should have the answers."

The answers will be provided by the 16 players left in the men's division of the tournament. All eight seeded players have survived the first two rounds.

It's a safe bet, MacCall says, "that at least one player not even in contention for the Cup could be picked."

One such player, Stan Smith of Pasadena, Calif., a sophomore at UCLA, is going to get the once over by MacCall. Smith plays seventh-seeded Clark Graebner of Beachwood, Ohio, Wednesday, and if Smith wins, he'll have to be considered a darkhorse candidate.

The only thing definite in MacCall's mind is that Dennis Ralston of Bakersfield, Calif., the nation's top ranked player, and Ham Richardson of Dallas, have the inside track to being named to the doubles team.

Canadian Open Golf Classic Opens Today

TORONTO (AP) — The $100,000 Canadian Open Golf Tournament headed into its first round today with Jack Nicklaus and Arnold Palmer assured of at least one thing — bountiful galleries.

The field of 144 teed off with the prospect of morning showers but partly sunny skies by afternoon. Nicklaus and Palmer were early-afternoon starters.

Both arrived Tuesday and played a casual practice round in which no scores were kept.

Rochester Gains 12th Win In Last 16 IL Contests

By The Associated Press

Can a team win the International League pennant from 16 games back?

The odds are overwhelmingly against it but the Rochester Red Wings apparently are going to give it a try. The Wings defeated Buffalo 4-3 Tuesday night for their 12th victory in their last 16 starts.

Rochester occupies sixth place in the standings with a 42-48 record and is 16 games behind league-leading Columbus.

In other games, Columbus stretched its winning streak to six games by whipping Jacksonville 7-1, Toledo nipped Atlanta 1-0 and Syracuse stopped Toronto 3-2.

Dooley Womack pitched a three-hitter for Toledo as the Mudhens beat the Crackers for the 10th time in 14 games.

2 Satellites Due To Detect Atom Blasts

By HOWARD BENEDICT
AP Aerospace Writer

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — A pair of Sentry satellites is to be launched here early Thursday to detect nuclear bomb explosions in space.

The Air Force announced today that the twin sentinels will be sent into high-flying orbits by an Atlas-Agena rocket. Riding along will be a third satellite, a 12-pounder designed to measure radiation in the Van Allen Belt.

The nuclear detection satellites will join four others launched in pairs in 1963 and 1964.

The earlier satellites have delicate sensors which peer more than 200 million miles into space to spot a clandestine nuclear detonation. The new pair also will carry optical instruments capable of detecting a nuclear blast anywhere in the atmosphere or on the earth's surface.

The optical instruments were designed to differentiate the initial blast of a bomb from lightning flashes, which are occurring at the rate of 60 to 100 a second in the atmosphere.

Two years ago, the United States and the Soviet Union were among more than 100 nations which signed the limited nuclear test-ban treaty.

Red China, which recently exploded her first nuclear devices above ground, did not sign.

The satellites were developed under a project named Vela — night watch — to help police the treaty. A nation could secretly fire a nuclear bomb by rocketing it deep into space. A second rocket would be needed to carry diagnostic gear.

Driver Flees Crash Scene

An unidentified driver failed to halt after his auto struck a parked car Tuesday night on Dresden Ave. near Smith St., police reported.

The hit - skip crash about 8 p.m. caused possible damage to the transmission of a 1956 two - door sedan owned by Francis Click, 857 W. 8th St. Two witnesses gave Click a license number for the offending car, which he turned over to police.

Two cars were damaged when they met at right angles at the junction of Park Way and Anderson Blvd. in Beechwood at 12:33 this morning, police reported.

The collision involved a 1959 model auto driven by Charles Summers, 19, of Harrison Ave. and a 1965 car operated by Lewis Categani, 35, of Calcutta, officers said.

Summers was driving on Anderson Blvd. and Categani was traveling on Park Way, police said. Summers told Patrolman Jack Strobel he thought the traffic signal at the intersection was changing from red to green, so he did not stop.

Categani reported Summers did not halt for the signal, which he termed a flashing red light. Categani said he could not stop in time to avoid striking the Summers car

Search Goes On For Seven In Air Crash

FALMOUTH, Mass., (AP) — The search continued today for seven crewmen missing since an Air Force radar picket plane crashed at sea Sunday night.

Air Force officials announced that attempts would be made to salvage sections of the four-engine plane, and said the operations might help turn up the bodies of some of the missing men.

Col. Raymond K. Gallagher, wing commander at Otis Air Force Base, said Tuesday night the Constellation is believed to be resting at a depth of 50 to 100 feet, about 85 to 100 miles northeast of Nantucket Island.

Officials said they have a good position on the point of the crash from one of the survivors, the navigator, Lt. Bruce Witcher.

Witcher, 27, of Redding, Calif., said he spent the last minutes before the crash fixing the position of the ditching.

Of the 19 men on board, three survived. Nine bodies were picked up by rescue vessels. Seven men were listed as missing.

Witcher and a second survivor, Airman 2.C David Surles, 24, of Raleigh, N.C., told newsmen Tuesday they never gave up hope as they floated more than 10 hours in the cold Atlantic.

The third survivor, Airman 1.C John N. Puopolo, 25, of Boston, was still under treatment from swallowing large amounts of sea water.

This 'n That

Ellis Island served more than 60 years as a "Plymouth Rock" to people from all over the Old World. In peak years, 5,000 people tumbled through its gates daily. Immigration officials had to work swiftly. Medical examinations were often little more than a glance. Biographies and vital statistics were reduced to 38 questions — asked and recorded in two minutes.

"Jonathan," a famed tortoise on the Atlantic island of St. Helena, was reputedly 40 years old when Napoleon was exiled there in 1815. Still alive at the latest report, the tortoise thus is reckoned to be at least 189 years old.

Mouthwatering Shrimp, Sour Cream Sauce

Mouthwatering shrimp and mushrooms in a delicate fresh dill and sour cream sauce. . . served on crisp Holland Rusk with a garnish of watercress sprigs and a tossed salad. . . is tasty and delicious.

SHRIMP STROGANOFF

1 Chicken-bouillon cube
½ cup boiling water
3 tablespoons butter or margarine
½ cup finely-chopped onion
1 clove garlic, minced
1 pound medium raw shrimp, shelled, deveined and rinsed
1½ tablespoons all - purpose flour
½ teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
⅛ teaspoon ground black pepper
1 cup commercial sour cream
1 tablespoon snipped fresh dill
4 Holland rusk

Dissolve chicken - bouillon cube in boling water; cool. Melt butter or margarine in a large skillet and saute mushrooms, onions and garlic for 10 minutes.

Add shrimp and continue cooking over medium heat for 10 minutes, stirring frequently. Remove shrimp, mushrooms and onion from skillet with a slotted spoon. Remove pan from heat. If necessary, add an additional tablespoon of four into pan drippings until smooth.

Gradually stir in chicken bouillon, Worcestershire sauce and pepper. Cook, stirring constantly, until mixture thickens. Return shrimp, mushrooms and onions to skillet. Stir in sour cream and dill. Heat, but do not boil. Spoon over Holland rusk. Makes 4 servings.

To deglaze a skillet or roasting pan means to remove the meat or poultry that was cooked in the pan and then to add a little liquid; the next step in deglazing is to get up all the brown particles in the pan by stirring over low heat.

Rights Units Spur Action In Bogalusa

BOGALUSA, La. (AP) — Civil rights forces prepared for stepped up demonstrations today after rejecting the governor's plea for a 30-day truce.

"They made a tragic mistake," said Gov. John J. McKeithen, who flew here Tuesday from Baton Rouge to confer with the Bogalua Civic and Voters League executive board.

Before flying back to the capital, McKeithen ordered the 375 state troopers on emergency duty here to confiscate every gun they see anywhere around future demonstrations.

Militants on both sides have been keeping guns handy — usually in nearby parked cars. A white man was shot and seriously wounded last week when he attacked Negroes at a protest march.

The league's civil rights drive is backed by the Congress of Racial Equality and the controversial, unaffiliated Deacons of Defense and Justice — an armed Negro defensive group.

Meeting Planned By Veterans For Memorial Event

James Cregar, chairman of the Veterans City Council and a trustee of American Legion Post 374, announced that the Council will meet with Mayor Merrill Hall in the caucus room at City Hall tonight at 8 to discuss plans for the annual Memorial Day festivities.

Attending the meeting from Post 374 with Cregar will be Commander John Long and three other members appointed to the Council Monday night. They are Louis Provost, Robert Poynter and Robert Landfried.

At a Post 374 meeting Monday, Cregar reported on the American Legion District 10 baseball tournament now in session at Columbiana.

Ralph Bosco and Leroy Patterson were inducted as new post members, while Tommy Davis was named bowling chairman.

James Wallover, service officer, reported that post members Joe Wolf, Harlin Allison, Fred Walter and Walter Kernaich were patients in City Hospital.

Forty-eight attended. Paul E. Fullerton received the post's member-of-the-week award.

Robert Poynter gave the audit report for the past year, and added that work was progressing on the post renovation.

It was announced that the post will name eight delegates to attend the state convention in Cleveland July 16-18.

Add shrimp and continue cooking over medium heat for 10 minutes, stirring frequently. Remove shrimp, mushrooms and onion from skillet with a slotted spoon. Remove pan from heat. If necessary, add an additional tablespoon of four into pan drippings until smooth.

Gradually stir in chicken bouillon, Worcestershire sauce and pepper. Cook, stirring constantly, until mixture thickens. Return shrimp, mushrooms and onions to skillet. Stir in sour cream and dill. Heat, but do not boil. Spoon over Holland rusk. Makes 4 servings.

To deglaze a skillet or roasting pan means to remove the meat or poultry that was cooked in the pan and then to add a little liquid; the next step in deglazing is to get up all the brown particles in the pan by stirring over low heat.

Rights Units Spur Action In Bogalusa

BOGALUSA, La. (AP) — Civil rights forces prepared for stepped up demonstrations today after rejecting the governor's plea for a 30-day truce.

"They made a tragic mistake," said Gov. John J. McKeithen, who flew here Tuesday from Baton Rouge to confer with the Bogalua Civic and Voters League executive board.

Before flying back to the capital, McKeithen ordered the 375 state troopers on emergency duty here to confiscate every gun they see anywhere around future demonstrations.

Guns are not illegal unless concealed. But the governor ordered them seized, anyhow.

Militants on both sides have been keeping guns handy — usually in nearby parked cars. A white man was shot and seriously wounded last week when he attacked Negroes at a protest march.

The league's civil rights drive is backed by the Congress of Racial Equality and the controversial, unaffiliated Deacons of Defense and Justice — an armed Negro defensive group.

Animals Live Amiably At Fair

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
AP Religion Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — The deer nibbled at the goat's ear. The kangaroo nuzzled noses with the donkey. The llama looked bored. Jewish and Christian clergymen recited psalms and prayed.

It was an odd assemblage, and also ecumenical, ecclesiastic and zoological.

It was held at the World's Fair Tuesday to show — as a possible lesson to man — how amiably animals could live together in a "peaceable kingdom."

"O Lord, open, we beseech Thee, our eyes to behold Thy gracious hand in all Thy works," prayed the Rev. Robert Seekins Jr., rector of Trinity Protestant Episcopal church in Troy, N.Y.

The assorted creatures — the dogs, a baby lamb, cats, a tiny pony, fish, a blinking scarlet macaw — along with the Scripture verses and blessings, made a curious pastoral scene in a furnished lounge.

"The theme expressed here is peace," said Cleveland Amory, chronicler of high society life and assembler and director of the animal kingdom exhibit at the fair.

"If animals of high individuality and which normally fight can live together happily, then the idea might spread to people, and maybe there would be hope for them, too," Amory said.

The mood among the beasts there was harmonious and tranquil, until the Shetland pony began kicking the wall behind the sofa and the bull calf tried to leap over the coffee table.

Father Ambrose Agius, a Washington, D.C., Roman Catholic and vice president of the National Catholic Society for Animal Welfare, prayed:

"O God, by whose providence these and all animals are lent to us for companionship and cooperation, grant us always gratefully to acknowledge in them Thy power and goodness, and to reproduce towards them Thy own fatherly care."

Rabbi David Goldberg, of the American Council of Judaism in New York, said a time will come, according to the prophecy of Isaiah, when "the wolf shall dwell with the lamb and the leopard with the kid; when the cow and the bear shall feed together and a little child shall lead them... when they shall not hurt nor destroy."

Man's Injured In Car Mishap

A Wellsville man was injured in a mishap on the East Liverpool - Wellsville highway early today and a city man escaped injury in a two-car crash at East Fairfield Tuesday night, the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon reported.

Edwin L. Leake, 25, of 343 Commerce St., Wellsville, was admitted to City Hospital after his car veered over the medial strip and two lanes of the highway and back again, hitting an embankment. He was in "fair" condition.

Officers said Leake was headed south in a 1960 sedan when he lost control, the car going over the divider and the two north lanes, hitting a guard rail, then crossing the highway and divider, hitting the embankment about 4:45 a. m.

Leake, who received a neck injury, was charged with improper changing of lanes.

Peter Paul Bobby, 69, of Struthers was cited for failure to yield the right of way after a collision at East Fairfield at 11:10 p. m.

The patrol said Bobby, headed east on Route 517, pulled into the path of a car driven by William R., Owens, 26, of 238 W. Church Ln., headed south on Route 7. Neither was injured.

Wife Of 'Runaway' Takes Him For Ride

JOHANNESBURG (AP) —Johannesburg used car dealers are nothing if not imaginative. One told a prospective customer why a car advertised for sale was so cheap — and swore the story was true.

He called at a house where the car was advertised in roadworthy condition for $14.

"It's in the back," said the woman who answered the door.

He came back after a few minutes and told the woman: "There must be some mistake. The only car in the back is worth every cent of $2,800.

"There's no mistake," said the woman. "It's my husband's. Last week he ran off with another woman.

"He wrote and told me to sell the car and send him the money."

Man Apologizes To Judge After Contempt Charge

Marvin E. Lafferty, 323 Broadway, purged himself of a charge of contempt of court after apologizing to Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today for remarks he made after he was sentenced to a 35-day term in County Jail on an intoxication charge filed under state law.

"Thank you!" Lafferty said in a sarcastic tone, adding some other words that were inaudible, after the judge had fined him $100 and costs and ordered him to jail in default of payment. The judge then cited him for contempt, conducting the second hearing after other criminal matters had been disposed of.

"This is the 202nd day of 1965 and you have spent 125 of those days in jail," he told Lafferty, a frequent offender on intoxication charges.

Vote Set Aug. 9 On TV Antenna Plan For Lisbon

LISBON — Council is scheduled to vote Aug. 9 on a proposed community television antenna service offered by the Columbiana Community Antenna Television System owned by WSTV of Steubenville.

Council has authorized Solicitor Joseph Baronzzi to prepare legislation on the proposal for consideration at its next meeting.

The antenna firm would erect a hilltop tower with a master antenna to relay signals to customers in the village and area, according to Les Rau, general manager of the company. A 20-year franchise is requested, for the project will cost the company $150,000 for installation of equipment and the firm must recover its initial investment Rau explained.

Subscribers would pay $4.50 a month, plus 50 cents for each additional outlet. Free outlets would be installed for schools and municipal buildings.

Husbands Of Yemen Eat Alone And Like It

Yemeni tradition holds that a wife, who is allowed to remove her veils in front of her husband or brother, must never be seen eating by her spouse.

The reason for this is lost in the country's ancient traditions, but the custom is rigidly observed in the cities.

In the countryside, however, women not only can be seen eating, they can also circulate without veils.

This is because the strenuous working pace of rural life in Yemen leaves no time for such oriental enigmas as trying to guess just who is under all that camouflage.

More Rioting Hits Ecuador

QUITO, Ecuador, (AP) — Tanks and army trucks patrolled Guayaquil, Ecuador's largest city, Tuesday night after more rioting against the ruling military junta. A curfew was imposed.

A 17-year-old girl was reported killed Tuesday in another of the antigovernment demonstrations that have been going on intermittently since Friday in Quito and Guayaquil.

One person was reported killed in Quito Monday night and a number were reported wounded in the capital and in Guayaquil. There was no report of trouble in Quito Tuesday.

The Defense Ministry and the Military High Command in a communique Tuesday night said the armed forces "will continue to be loyal to the historic responsibility the country has bestowed on them.

The communique said the armed forces "are solidly unified" and "are determined to maintain order and security in spite of the anarchical outbreaks in Quito and Guayaquil."

Amid the unrest, the wife of junta President Ramon Castro Jijon left Guayaquil by plane Tuesday night for the United States. The reason for her trip was not known.

Marvin E. Lafferty, 323 Broadway, purged himself of a charge of contempt of court after apologizing to Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today for remarks he made after he was sentenced to a 35-day term in County Jail on an intoxication charge filed under state law.

"Thank you!" Lafferty said in a sarcastic tone, adding some other words that were inaudible, after the judge had fined him $100 and costs and ordered him to jail in default of payment. The judge then cited him for contempt, conducting the second hearing after other criminal matters had been disposed of.

"This is the 202nd day of 1965 and you have spent 125 of those days in jail," he told Lafferty, a frequent offender on intoxication charges.

Vote Set Aug. 9 On TV Antenna Plan For Lisbon

LISBON — Council is scheduled to vote Aug. 9 on a proposed community television antenna service offered by the Columbiana Community Antenna Television System owned by WSTV of Steubenville.

Council has authorized Solicitor Joseph Baronzzi to prepare legislation on the proposal for consideration at its next meeting.

The antenna firm would erect a hilltop tower with a master antenna to relay signals to customers in the village and area, according to Les Rau, general manager of the company. A 20-year franchise is requested, for the project will cost the company $150,000 for installation of equipment and the firm must recover its initial investment Rau explained.

Subscribers would pay $4.50 a month, plus 50 cents for each additional outlet. Free outlets would be installed for schools and municipal buildings.

Wife Of 'Runaway' Takes Him For Ride

JOHANNESBURG (AP) — Johannesburg used car dealers are nothing if not imaginative. One told a prospective customer why a car advertised for sale was so cheap — and swore the story was true.

He called at a house where the car was advertised in roadworthy condition for $14.

"It's in the back," said the woman who answered the door.

He came back after a few minutes and told the woman: "There must be some mistake. The only car in the back is worth every cent of $2,800.

"There's no mistake," said the woman. "It's my husband's. Last week he ran off with another woman.

"He wrote and told me to sell the car and send him the money."

Husbands Of Yemen Eat Alone And Like It

Yemeni tradition holds that a wife, who is allowed to remove her veils in front of her husband or brother, must never be seen eating by her spouse.

The reason for this is lost in the country's ancient traditions, but the custom is rigidly observed in the cities.

This is because the strenuous working pace of rural life in Yemen leaves no time for such oriental enigmas as trying to guess just who is under all that camouflage.

Defense Chief Cites Savings Of 4.6 Billion

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara claimed today his cost reduction program saved $4.6 billion in the last fiscal year — more than double the $2.1 billion saving he forecast a year ago.

McNamara said the program is going so well that savings of $6.1 billion a year by fiscal 1969 and each year after that "have been set as our new long range goal."

The program is in its fourth year.

McNamara stressed that "these savings are being accomplished without any adverse effect on our military strength and combat readiness."

His third annual progress report on his cost reduction program was prepared for a news conference.

McNamra said the program has three parts: "Buying only what we need to achieve balanced readiness," "buying at the lowest sound price" and "reducing operating costs through termination of unnecessary operations, standardization and consolidation."

Among other things, McNamara said that his controversial base-closing program realized $483 million in savings in the 1965 fiscal year.

Better U.S., Soviet Ties Johnson Hope

WASHINGTON (AP) — For the first time in many months President Johnson has some slight hope of improving U.S.-Soviet relations despite the bitter differences between the two powers over the war in Viet Nam.

The break in a long diplomatic stalemate came late Monday when the Soviet Embassy here notified the U.S. Disarmament Agency — to the complete surprise of administration officials — that the Soviet government agreed to resume disarmament talks at Geneva.

Exactly the opposite Soviet response, if there was any response at all, had been expected. U.S. officials believe that the Soviet government did not wish at this time of rivalry with Red China and dispute with the United States over the crisis in Southeast Asia to get into any position of appearing to cooperate with the United States.

Up to a few days ago the whole line of Kremlin foreign policy toward the United States had been antagonistic. Washington's feeling was that the Russians were not looking for really serious trouble with the United States but neither could they tolerate any real improvement in relations.

The dominant attitude within the administration here is still one of deep skepticism about progress on the great disarmament issues, but at least the way has been opened for their discussion.

The date of the disarmament talks has not yet been finally and other members of the 17- has suggested July 27 and the agreement of the Soviet Union determined. U.S. disarmament policy chief William C. Foster nation conference is expected on that or some date close to it.

U.S. officials intend to make proposals primarily for agreements to halt the spread of nuclear weapons in the world and to expand the limited nuclear test-ban treaty, concluded in 1963. The United States wants to prohibit underground tests as well as those in the atmosphere.

Conferees Eye Work On Health Care Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate and House conferees meet today to start working out a compromise on the medicare bill, and congressional leaders predict fast agreement.

The Senate added 513 amendments to the House version of the bill, which provides health care for the elderly and increases Social Security benefits.

Plane Crash Fatal To Five Being Probed

PARKERSBURG, W. Va. (AP)— The Federal Aviation Agency is sifting through the burned out wreckage of a private twin engine plane today in an effort to determine the cause of a crash that killed five persons.

Three of the victims were from Cincinnati, a fourth from Columbus, and the fifth, the plane's pilot, was from Boone County, Ky.

The victims were identified as James A. Gilkey, 38, board chairman of the Gilkey Electric Co.; his brother-in-law, James McAllister, 27, and Albert Damico, 45, all of Cincinnati; William E. Gibbs, 26, of Columbus salesman, and Curtis White, the pilot of the plane.

The group had gone to Parkersburg from the Greater Cincinnati Airport to visit the factory of a supplier of the Gilkey firm.

Witnesses report the plane seemed to have engine trouble as it took off from Wood County Airport. They said the plane gained altitude slightly, then disappeared behind trees about a half-mile from the runway.

A helicopter pilot flying over the scene shortly after the crash said he saw three persons in the burning wreckage attempting to escape.

Better U.S., Soviet Ties Johnson Hope

WASHINGTON (AP) — For the first time in many months President Johnson has some slight hope of improving U.S.-Soviet relations despite the bitter differences between the two powers over the war in Viet Nam.

The break in a long diplomatic stalemate came late Monday when the Soviet Embassy here notified the U.S. Disarmament Agency — to the complete surprise of administration officials — that the Soviet government agreed to resume disarmament talks at Geneva.

Exactly the opposite Soviet response, if there was any response at all, had been expected. U.S. officials believe that the Soviet government did not wish at this time of rivalry with Red China and dispute with the United States over the crisis in Southeast Asia to get into any position of appearing to cooperate with the United States.

Up to a few days ago the whole line of Kremlin foreign policy toward the United States had been antagonistic. Washington's feeling was that the Russians were not looking for really serious trouble with the United States but neither could they tolerate any real improvement in relations.

The dominant attitude within the administration here is still one of deep skepticism about progress on the great disarmament issues, but at least the way has been opened for their discussion.

The date of the disarmament talks has not yet been finally and other members of the 17-has suggested July 27 and the agreement of the Soviet Union determined. U.S. disarmament policy chief William C. Foster nation conference is expected on that or some date close to it.

U.S. officials intend to make proposals primarily for agreements to halt the spread of nuclear weapons in the world and to expand the limited nuclear test-ban treaty, concluded in 1963. The United States wants to prohibit underground tests as well as those in the atmosphere.

Conferees Eye Work On Health Care Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate and House conferees meet today to start working out a compromise on the medicare bill, and congressional leaders predict fast agreement.

The Senate added 513 amendments to the House version of the bill, which provides health care for the elderly and increases Social Security benefits.

Plane Crash Fatal To Five Being Probed

PARKERSBURG, W. Va. (AP) — The Federal Aviation Agency is sifting through the burned out wreckage of a private twin engine plane today in an effort to determine the cause of a crash that killed five persons.

Three of the victims were from Cincinnati, a fourth from Columbus, and the fifth, the plane's pilot, was from Boone County, Ky.

The victims were identified as James A. Gilkey, 38, board chairman of the Gilkey Electric Co.; his brother-in-law, James McAllister, 27, and Albert Damico, 45, all of Cincinnati; William E. Gibbs, 26, of Columbus salesman, and Curtis White, the pilot of the plane.

The group had gone to Parkersburg from the Greater Cincinnati Airport to visit the factory of a supplier of the Gilkey firm.

Witnesses report the plane seemed to have engine trouble as it took off from Wood County Airport. They said the plane gained altitude slightly, then disappeared behind trees about a half-mile from the runway.

A helicopter pilot flying over the scene shortly after the crash said he saw three persons in the burning wreckage attempting to escape.

To remove the lacquer from a copper mold, place the mold in a solution of boiling water and baking soda and boil for a couple of minutes. Remove the mold from the water and peel off the lacquer.

Bringing Up A Family

By Dr. GARRY MYERS

Speech Problem Can Be Helped At Home

Now and then in this column, I have discussed the child who doesn't speak plainly. I have pointed out that, whereas his family and playmates may easily understand him and think nothing of the matter before he enters school, his teacher and schoolmates, will incline to treat him as much younger than he is. This treatment will make him self - conscious of his speech and cause him to feel shy and uncomfortable.

Dr. Garry Myers

So you can see that it is very important that this child should be helped to speak more distinctly before he enters school.

Any kind and patient parent, brother or sister might easily find ways to help this child considerably. Should they fail to see any improvement after some weeks or months, a speech expert should be consulted.

THE CHILD'S hearing should, of course, be tested. If he does not hear sounds distinctly, he could not so easily make them. In this case he should be in the care of an ear specialist.

But in most cases it is not a matter of a hearing defect. The youngster has just not hit on good ways of sounding words distinctly. Perhaps the child reported in the following letter from Ontario, Canada, is of this type:

"We are a small farm family —children eight, six, five and three. Our problem is with the only boy, five years old. His speech is slow. He does not pronounce 'S,' 'F' or many blends and slurs 'R.'

"He says: 'Where may cap?'" ('Where is my cap?"); 'It wn upstairs.' ('It was upstairs.'); 'Hilo' (silo). Fred attempts all words and does lots of 'talking' and both parents give him attention when he is talking to us. He is read to a great deal and 'reads' the pictures back to me.

"WE HAVE found your advice on child-rearing most helpful and verry adaptable to our everyday living. I have found your chair - sitting type of correction 100% effective and I have always been impressed by your teaching of tolerance and cooperation among all groups of people. Having definite chores for each child is a recommendation of yours that we follow also."

My reply in part:

From your letter I infer that you are a companionable, happy family. You parents and children easily understand your son despite his indistinct speech. So he probably does not feel occasion to speak more distinctly.

However, if he often were stopped in his speech and corrected he might grow very self-conscious. Dad might occasionally help this boy, while they are companionable outdoors, with a troublesome word, if this were done unobtrusively and skillfully. One of the older children, when alone with this lad, might also help in this way.

OCCASIONALLY you parents and the other children, when this boy is not present, should talk together about this problem, trying to find ways each of you could help him kindly. You would all consider ways to win his cooperation, and keep from making him self - conscious and shy about his speech.

It is fine you read to him. Do this more and more. A big item in his favor is that he is so happy and responsive a little fellow and likes to talk.

My bulletins, "The Young Child's Speech," "Why Read to Baby and Young Child," may be secured by sending a self - addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of The Review.

Funeral Being Arranged

Ex-Congressman Bailey Of West Virginia Dies

CHARLESTON (AP) — Funeral arrangements were being made today for former Rep. Cleveland M. Bailey, a veteran Democrat from West Virginia's old 3rd district.

Bailey died in a Charleston hospital Tuesday, just two days before his 79th birthday. He had been under treatment for a kidney disorder, but his physician said he could not determine the immediate cause of death.

Before his defeat in the 1962 election, Bailey was dean of the West Virginia congressional delegation. The 3rd district had sent him to Congress eight times. He became chairman of the House Education subcommittee and was the second ranking Democrat on the House Education and Labor Committee.

Bailey's old 3rd district was absorbed into the 1st district as a result of congressional reapportionment in 1962. He was forced to face Republican incumbent Rep. Arch Moore Jr., who defeated him 97,556 to 65,328.

First elected to the House in 1944, Bailey was beaten in the 1946 election by Republican E.G. Rohrbough. He won back his seat in 1948 and served seven consecutive terms until his 1962 defeat.

Bailey was a native of St. Marys. He was graduated from Geneva College in Beaver Falls, Pa., in 1908.

He serrved as a Clarksburg High School principal in 1917-18 and district superintendent of schools from 1919 to 1922. He entered politics in 1921, serving on the Clarksburg City Council until 1923. For the next ten year he was telegraph editor of the Clarksburg Exponent.

In 1933 Bailey became assistant state auditor. He then served as state budget director eight years later and held the post until he was elected to congress.

Bailey leaves a widow, the former Maud Rigby and three children. He will be taken to Clarksburg for burial.

2 Motorcyclists Thwarted By Train In Quest For Beer

A few minutes later, having timed things badly, they roared back out. A few inches behind them was a train.

What was at the other end of the tunnel — and worth a confrontation with a diesel locomotive?

Beer. Thousands of cases of it — all there for the taking.

The only problem was getting it out.

Last May 5, 11 cars of a San Diego, Arizona and Eastern Railway trained derailed north of Jacumba, in eastern San Diego County near the Mexican border. Two truck vans loaded with beer tumbled off a flatcar into 1,000-foot-deep Carriso Gorge.

The railroad figured the beer — 72,000 cans — was a complete loss.

Adventurous San Diego County youths figured otherwise. They heard about the beer, and headed for Carriso Gorge.

"It must be one of the most inaccessible places in the state," said a railroad official. "The only way to get there is over the railroad right-of-way, four miles in, four miles out, through two tunnels. It's all private property, of course, and there's a sheriff's deputy watching it like a hawk."

Sheriff's officer Alfred Dart has pounced, hawk-like, on 24 people. Dart seized all the beer they had risked their lives to recover. Four were prosecuted for trespassing, the other released.

Despite Dart and diesels, nearly all the beer has disappeared.

But railroaders say the big joke of Jacumba is in the beer drinking.

One railroad official explained: "The beer was in refrigerated vans. Once it gets warm it tastes terrible, even if you re-refrigerate it. There wasn't a beer in that gorge worth walking across the street for."

Passage Completed On Cigarette Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress has completed passage of a bill requiring health warning on every pack of cigarettes.

The Federal Trade Commission, however, is barred from ordering the tobacco industry to include such a warning with cigarette ads.

3-Week Strike Ends

DEFIANCE, Ohio (AP) — A two-week strike at the three local plants of Johns Manville Fiberglas, Inc., ended Tuesday when members of Local 51, Glass Bottle Blowers Association voted, 170-168, to ratify a new three-year contract.

Reducer Claims Will Power Not Needed

"If fat people would only learn about food, they would not find it hard to lose weight." These words from a successful reducer gave this dietitian a lift.

Why lose out on 50 years of scientific advances in modern nutrition knowledge? Protective dieting, when applied, Ida Jean Kain is more sensational in positive results than faddy dieting could ever be! By following the scientific pattern of eating, you can slim down two pounds a week without feeling hungry, losing your bounce, or chancing wrinkles. For convincing proof, read this:

"I HAVE at last reached that long awaited day when everyone is saying to me, 'You are thin enough.' I have been on my diet for 10 months. I weighed 200 pounds when I started and have lost 50 pounds. I followed your Calorie Chart and diet plan, and both were most helpful. I knew what I was eating, and I want to say that cutting calories really was not hard at all. It is surprising how well I ate and did not suffer from hunger.

"Everyone is complimenting me now and saying, 'What will power!' I tell them it really doesn't take will power. I would say that only a half dozen times out of those 10 months did I go to bed a bit hungry. I took no pills. I have gone down from a 22½ dress to 16½. My weight of 150 may seem a lot yet, but I am 5' 6", and I guess I am more solid than most people.

"I am really thrilled to know that I look so nice, and everyone tells me I look a lot younger. Part of it is because I can now wear the prettier styles that come in the smaller sizes.

"I have never felt nervous or jittery at any time during my diet months. I could not afford to be with my job, as I am an executive secretary and work under pressure. My husband says my disposition has not suffered a bit.

"IF FAT PEOPLE would only learn about food, they would not find it so hard to lose weight. Believe me, I am never going to let myself regain. It's so nice to know I look my best. Many thanks for your help. I love your column and have advised others to read it and learn," she concluded.

Cheers for this extraordinary dieter who is content to stay at 150 pounds, which is normal for her generous frame. Her healthy attitude toward that nebulous quality termed will power is indeed unique. If you've never adventured in eating the scientific way to slim down, you're in for a pleasant surprise.

4-Ton Killer Whale Poses International Law Question

SOINTULA, B.C. (AP) — Four-ton Namu, the killer whale who blundered into a salmon net, plowed on toward United States waters today — and nobody seemed to know the answer to the question:

What does the law have to say about taking a live whale across an international border?

The best guess: nothing.

"Nobody has asked me this before," said Samuel Hutchinson, regional director of the U.S. Bureau of Fisheries in Seattle, Wash. "We have never been confronted with this problem."

"They're free to export so far as we're concerned," said Canadian Fisheries officer Maurice Houghton in Vancouver, B.C., "We have export regulations covering salmon, but — "

The 22-foot whale has been purchased by Seattle aquarium operator Ted Griffin, who paid $8,000 to the two fishermen who netted him at Namu, B.C. A 45-by 60-foot pen was built for Namu at Namu and the whale, pen and all, is being towed the 400 miles to Seattle.

The trip is expected to take another week because the tug, the powerful Iver Foss of Tacoma, Wash., is making only three knots. It can go faster, but Namu can't.

Pamphlet Of Senate Group Attacks Friends Committee

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Internal Security subcommittee in a pamphlet has called the American Friends Service Committee a "well-known transmission belt for the Communist apparatus."

Colin W. Bell, executive secretary of the AFSC, said at Swarthmore, Pa.: "We cannot make any sense out of the quotations as given in the article . . . we will decide on the action to take when we have read exactly what has been written in the report. There is no use trying to comment on what now sounds like gibberish to us."

WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Association of Broadcasters has promised cooperation with a Federal Communications Commission policy to tone down "objectionably loud" radio and television commercials.

But NAB President Vincent T. Wasilewski said the FCC policy statement was premature and the problem involves "subjective elements and is so complex that no solutions have yet become apparent."

On Monday, after a two-year study, the FCC demanded that announcers avoid delivering commercials "in a loud, rapid and strident manner, with the maximum number of words crammed into the time period."

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate has passed a $14.2 billion appropriation for 27 government agencies and a $7.9 billion bill to run the Agriculture Department. Both amounts were higher than the House had approved, so they will go to Senate-House conferences to adjust the differences.

Bringing Up A Family

By Dr. GARRY MYERS

Speech Problem Can Be Helped At Home

Now and then in this column, I have discussed the child who doesn't speak plainly. I have pointed out that, whereas his family and playmates may easily understand him and think nothing of the matter before he enters school, his teacher and schoolmates will incline to treat him as much younger than he is. This treatment will make him self - conscious of his speech and cause him to feel shy and uncomfortable.

Dr. Garry Myers

So you can see that it is very important that this child should be helped to speak more distinctly before he enters school.

Any kind and patient parent, brother or sister might easily find ways to help this child considerably. Should they fail to see any improvement after some weeks or months, a speech expert should be consulted.

THE CHILD'S hearing should, of course, be tested. If he does not hear sounds distinctly, he could not so easily make them. In this case he should be in the care of an ear specialist.

But in most cases it is not a matter of a hearing defect. The youngster has just not hit on good ways of sounding words distinctly. Perhaps the child reported in the following letter from Ontario, Canada, is of this type:

"We are a small farm family —children eight, six, five and three. Our problem is with the only boy, five years old. His speech is slow. He does not pronounce 'S,' 'F' or many blends and slurs 'R.'

"He says: 'Where may cap?' ('Where is my cap?'); 'It wi upstairs.' (It was upstairs.'); 'Hilo' (silo). Fred attempts a l words and does lots of 'talking' and both parents give him attention when he is talking to us. He is read to a great deal and reads the pictures back to me.

"WE HAVE found your advice on child-rearing most helpful and verry adaptable to our everyday living. I have found your chair - sitting type of correction 100% effective and I have always been impressed by your teaching of tolerance and cooperation among all groups of people. Having definite chores for each child is a recommendation of yours that we follow also."

My reply in part:

From your letter I infer that you are a companionable, happy family. You parents and children easily understand your son despite his indistinct speech. So he probably does not feel occasion to speak more distinctly.

However, if he often were stopped in his speech and corrected he might grow very self-conscious. Dad might occasionally help this boy, while they are companionable outdoors, with a troublesome word, if this were done unobtrusively and skillfully. One of the older children, when alone with this lad, might also help in this way.

OCCASIONALLY you parents and the other children, when this boy is not present, should talk together about this problem, trying to find ways each of you could help him kindly. You would all consider ways to win his cooperation, and keep from making him self - conscious and shy about his speech.

It is fine you read to him. Do this more and more. A big item in his favor is that he is so happy and responsive a little fellow and likes to talk.

My bulletins, "The Young Child's Speech," "Why Read to Baby and Young Child," may be secured by sending a self - addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of The Review.

Funeral Being Arranged

Ex-Congressman Bailey Of West Virginia Dies

CHARLESTON (AP) — Funeral arrangements were being made today for former Rep. Cleveland M. Bailey, a veteran Democrat from West Virginia's old 3rd district.

Bailey died in a Charleston hospital Tuesday, just two days before his 79th birthday. He had been under treatment for a kidney disorder, but his physician said he could not determine the immediate cause of death.

Before his defeat in the 1962 election, Bailey was dean of the West Virginia congressional delegation. The 3rd district had sent him to Congress eight times. He became chairman of the House Education subcommittee and was the second ranking Democrat on the House Education and Labor Committee.

Bailey's old 3rd district was absorbed into the 1st district as a result of congressional reapportionment in 1962. He was forced to face Republican incumbent Rep. Arch Moore Jr., who defeated him 97,556 to 65,328.

First elected to the House in 1944, Bailey was beaten in the 1946 election by Republican E.G. Rohrbough. He won back his seat in 1948 and served seven consecutive terms until his 1962 defeat.

Bailey was a native of St. Marys. He was graduated from Geneva College in Beaver Falls, Pa., in 1908.

He served as a Clarksburg High School principal in 1917-18 and district superintendent of schools from 1919 to 1922. He entered politics in 1921, serving on the Clarksburg City Council until 1923. For the next ten year he was telegraph editor of the Clarksburg Exponent.

In 1933 Bailey became assistant state auditor. He then served as state budget director eight years later and held the post until he was elected to congress.

Bailey leaves a widow, the former Maud Rigby and three children. He will be taken to Clarksburg for burial.

2 Motorcyclists Thwarted By Train In Quest For Beer

A few minutes later, having timed things badly, they roared back out. A few inches behind them was a train.

What was at the other end of the tunnel — and worth a confrontation with a diesel locomotive?

Beer. Thousands of cases of it — all there for the taking.

The only problem was getting it out.

Last May 5, 11 cars of a San Diego, Arizona and Eastern Railway trained derailed north of Jacumba, in eastern San Diego County near the Mexican border. Two truck vans loaded with beer tumbled off a flatcar into 1,000-foot-deep Carriso Gorge.

The railroad figured the beer — 72,000 cans — was a complete loss.

Adventurous San Diego County youths figured otherwise. They heard about the beer, and headed for Carriso Gorge.

"It must be one of the most inaccessible places in the state," said a railroad official. "The only way to get there is over the railroad right-of-way, four miles in, four miles out, through two tunnels. It's all private property, of course, and there's a sheriff's deputy watching it like a hawk."

Sheriff's officer Alfred Dart has pounced, hawk-like, on 24 people. Dart seized all the beer they had risked their lives to recover. Four were prosecuted for trespassing, the other released.

Despite Dart and diesels, nearly all the beer has disappeared.

But railroaders say the big joke of Jacumba is in the beer drinking.

Reducer Claims Will Power Not Needed

"If fat people would only learn about food, they would not find it hard to lose weight." These words from a successful reducer gave this dietitian a lift.

Ida Jean Kain

Why lose out on 50 years of scientific advances in modern nutrition knowledge? Protective dieting, when applied, is more sensational in positive results than faddy dieting could ever be! By following the scientific pattern of eating, you can slim down two pounds a week without feeling hungry, losing your bounce, or chancing wrinkles. For convincing proof, read this:

"I HAVE at last reached that long awaited day when everyone is saying to me, 'You are thin enough.' I have been on my diet for 10 months. I weighed 200 pounds when I started and have lost 50 pounds. I followed your Calorie Chart and diet plan, and both were most helpful. I knew what I was eating, and I want to say that cutting calories really was not hard at all. It is surprising how well I ate and did not suffer from hunger.

"Everyone is complimenting me now and saying, 'What will power!' I tell them it really doesn't take will power. I would say that only a half dozen times out of those 10 months did I go to bed a bit hungry. I took no pills. I have gone down from a 22½ dress to 16½. My weight of 150 may seem a lot yet, but I am 5' 6", and I guess I am more solid than most people.

"I am really thrilled to know that I look so nice, and everyone tells me I look a lot younger. Part of it is because I can now wear the prettier styles that come in the smaller sizes.

"I have never felt nervous or jittery at any time during my diet months. I could not afford to be with my job, as I am an executive secretary and work under pressure. My husband says my disposition has not suffered a bit.

"IF FAT PEOPLE would only learn about food, they would not find it so hard to lose weight. Believe me, I am never going to let myself regain. It's so nice to know I look my best. Many thanks for your help. I love your column and have advised others to read it and learn," she concluded.

Cheers for this extraordinary dieter who is content to stay at 150 pounds, which is normal for her generous frame. Her healthy attitude toward that nebulous quality termed will power is indeed unique. If you've never adventured in eating the scientific way to slim down, you're in for a pleasant surprise.

Send self - addressed, stamped, long envelope for Revised Calorie Chart and Eat To Build Leanness. Address request to Ida Jean Kain, care of The Review. Post card requests cannot be answered.

SOINTULA, B.C. (AP) — Four-ton Namu, the killer whale who blundered into a salmon net, plowed on toward United States waters today — and nobody seemed to know the answer to the question:

What does the law have to say about taking a live whale across an international border?

The best guess: nothing.

"Nobody has asked me this before," said Samuel Hutchinson, regional director of the U.S. Bureau of Fisheries in Seattle, Wash. "We have never been confronted with this problem."

"They're free to export so far as we're concerned," said Canadian Fisheries officer Maurice Houghton in Vancouver, B.C., "We have export regulations covering salmon, but — "

The 22-foot whale has been purchased by Seattle aquarium operator Ted Griffin, who paid $8,000 to the two fishermen who netted him at Namu, B.C. A 49-by 60-foot pen was built for Namu at Namu and the whale, pen and all, is being towed the 400 miles to Seattle.

The trip is expected to take another week because the tug, the powerful Iver Foss of Tacoma, Wash., is making only three knots. It can go faster, but Namu can't.

Pamphlet Of Senate Group Attacks Friends Committee

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Internal Security subcommittee in a pamphlet has called the American Friends Service Committee a "well-known transmission belt for the Communist apparatus."

Colin W. Bell, executive secretary of the AFSC, said at Swarthmore, Pa.: "We cannot make any sense out of the quotations as given in the article ... we will decide on the action to take when we have read exactly what has been written in the report. There is no use trying to comment on what now sounds like gibberish to us."

WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Association of Broadcasters has promised cooperation with a Federal Communications Commission policy to tone down "objectionably loud" radio and television commercials.

But NAB President Vincent T. Wasilewski said the FCC policy statement was premature and the problem involves "subjective elements and is so complex that no solutions have yet become apparent."

On Monday, after a two-year study, the FCC demanded that announcers avoid delivering commercials "in a loud, rapid and strident manner, with the maximum number of words crammed into the time period."

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate has passed a $14.2 billion appropriation for 27 government agencies and a $7.9 billion bill to run the Agriculture Department. Both amounts were higher than the House had approved, so they will go to Senate-House conferences to adjust the differences.

2 Cars Damaged As Driver's Foot Slips Off Brake

A Chester motorist's foot slipped off the brake pedal Tuesday afternoon as he maneuvered into a Dresden Ave. parking space, causing a crash that damaged his car, a parked station wagon and a parking meter standard, police reported.

The 1963 four - door sedan operated by Adam J. Bott, 75, of 144 California Ave. lunged forward and hit the rear of a 1964 model station wagon owned by Raymond J. Bigelow of Negley R. D. 1, shoving it about six feet, officers reported.

The mishap was timed at 12:15. Patrolman Orin C. Smith investigated.

A Chester motorist's foot slipped off the brake pedal Tuesday afternoon as he maneuvered into a Dresden Ave. parking space, causing a crash that damaged his car, a parked station wagon and a parking meter standard, police reported.

The 1963 four - door sedan operated by Adam J. Bott, 75, of 144 California Ave. lunged forward and hit the rear of a 1964 model station wagon owned by Raymond J. Bigelow of Negley R. D. 1, shoving it about six feet, officers reported.

The mishap was timed at 12:15. Patrolman Orin C. Smith investigated.

New Press Secretary Tries Out New Rules

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson seems to be trying to improve not only his own public image but that of the press as well.

Bill D. Moyers, the new White House press secretary, tried out some new rules Tuesday in an effort to reduce the confusion caused in the minds of television viewers when reporters pop up all over the room at news conferences shouting "Mr. President."

Moyers told the newsmen gathered in the East Room to keep their seats and hold up a hand, like they were in school. The President would recognize them, he said, and then they could get up, go to a nearby microphone and ask their question.

To facilitate matters, Moyers had about 30 microphones scattered around the room. The men with the long-boom hearing devices, which can pick up a voice many yards away, still kept their equipment trained on the reporters.

While he was making a series of announcements at the beginning of the conference, the President was all but hidden by a television camera almost looking down his throat. The camera was linked to a prompting device.

When the announcements were over, the camera hastily was hauled out of range, the prompter disconnected and everybody was on his own.

Of course, not everything worked out as expected. A few times two reporters thought they had the presidential nod and started talking at the same time. One woman reporter, sitting in the first row, didn't bother to get up to ask the President two questions.

Their Faces Are Red For A Good Reason

SANAA, Yemen (AP) — Yemeni women of today have something in common with their American Red Indian sisters of a century ago — they cover their face with paint to prevent sunburn.

Yank Kills Korean, Thinking He Was Red

SEOUL, Korea (AP) — An American soldier on guard duty mistook a South Korean army private for a Communist infiltrator before dawn today and killed him, the U.S. Army announced.

11 Students Hurt In Blast

BAKERSFIELD, Calif. (AP)—Eleven students were hospitalized, two in critical condition, after a chemical explosion showereed splinters of glass through a science laboratory at Bakersfield College.

There was a terrific noise and suddenly the room was full of fog and chemicals," said the chemistry teacher, Dr. Robert Brailsford. "I couldn't see anything for a couple of minutes."

Brailsford said the explosion which ripped through the summer school class of 25 students at the junior college Tuesday apparently was touched off unintentionally by a youth mixing noncompatible chemicals not included in the class experiment.

All 24 students were taken to the hospital, but 13 were released after treatment for either cuts or chemical inhalation.

Brailsford said the youth, William J. Fox, 19, of Ridgecrest, realized what he had done and gasped "God forgive me" before he collapsed to the floor.

Spokesmen at Bakersfield Memorial Hospital said Fox was in critical condition with burns and internal cuts from flying glass fragments. He lost his left hand.

Two Killed, Another Wounded In Shooting

CLEVELAND (AP)—Two persons were killed and a third was wounded critically early today in a shooting at an East Side apartment.

The coroner's office said Miss Joan Robinson, 20, and Robert Walker, 19, were dead on arrival at Lakeside Hospital. Seriously wounded was Fred Evans, 21.

Their Faces Are Red For A Good Reason

SANAA, Yemen (AP) — Yemeni women of today have something in common with their American Red Indian sisters of a century ago — they cover their face with paint to prevent sunburn.

The colors are those of pigments which are smeared over the face and brows to protect the skin underneath from the sun rays.

Yank Kills Korean, Thinking He Was Red

SEOUL, Korea (AP) — An American soldier on guard duty mistook a South Korean army private for a Communist infiltrator before dawn today and killed him, the U.S. Army announced.

The two men were on guard duty together along the demilitarized zone about 20 miles northwest of Seoul. The Army said the Korean apparently strayed away from the guard post and was shot as he was making his way back.

Youth Injured On Motorbike Among 14 Given Treatment

Gary Coleman, 17, son of Clair Coleman of 231 W. 3rd St., suffered abrasions of the scalp, knees and back when his motorbike skidded as he attempted to avoid hitting an auto on St. Clair Ave. at the intersection with Park Blvd. last night.

Lorin Howard, 29, of S. Surry Rd. was treated for a laceration of the lower jaw received when weights he was lifting at a friend's home slipped and fell.

Hugh McKernan of Glenmoor was treated this morning for a laceration of the tip of a finger suffered at work at the Taylor, Smith & Taylor Co.

Mrs. Frances Figley of Cannons Mills was treated last night for an injury to the right elbow suffered in a fall in the basement at home.

Robin Lynn Cox, daughter of Mrs. George Cox of New Cumberland R.D. 2, was treated for an ankle injury received while playing.

While at work at the T. K. Roofing Co. in Chester, Leman Starkey of 201 Jefferson St., Newell, suffered burns of the left arm from asphalt.

11 Students Hurt In Blast

BAKERSFIELD, Calif. (AP)—Eleven students were hospitalized, two in critical condition, after a chemical explosion showereed splinters of glass through a science laboratory at Bakersfield College.

There was a terrific noise and suddenly the room was full of fog and chemicals," said the chemistry teacher, Dr. Robert Brailsford. "I couldn't see anything for a couple of minutes."

Brailsford said the explosion which ripped through the summer school class of 25 students at the junior college Tuesday apparently was touched off unintentionally by a youth mixing noncompatible chemicals not included in the class experiment.

All 24 students were taken to the hospital, but 13 were released after treatment for either cuts or chemical inhalation.

Brailsford said the youth, William J. Fox, 19, of Ridgecrest, realized what he had done and gasped "God forgive me" before he collapsed to the floor.

Spokesmen at Bakersfield Memorial Hospital said Fox was in critical condition with burns and internal cuts from flying glass fragments. He lost his left hand.

Deputies Break Up Softball Game Fight

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP)—The Clark County sheriff's office sent several deputies Tuesday night to break up a bat-swinging free-for-all between two softball teams.

One man was hospitalized with a possible concussion. Another player was treated at the hospital and released.

Deputies said the fight started over an umpire's decision during the game between teams from the Lutheran Inner Mission and Good Shepherd Lutheran Church.

Typhoon Leaves 37 Dead In Philippines

MANILA (AP) — Typhoon Freda headed for the highly fortified Communist Chinese island of Hainan today, leaving an estimated 37 persons dead in the Philippines and extensive damage.

The storm was reported 260 miles south southeast of Hong Kong and moving west northwest about 14 miles per hour. The Hong Kong observatory said if it kept to its present course, it would pass 200 miles south of the British colony Thursday.

France Displays Part Of Budding Atomic Air Force

Officials said that 9,000 troops of all kinds took part, including varied armored units, Alpine troops, navy and air force units.

Following the parade De Gaulle was host at a giant reception at the Elysee Palace.

Two Killed, Another Wounded In Shooting

CLEVELAND (AP)—Two persons were killed and a third was wounded critically early today in a shooting at an East Side apartment.

The coroner's office said Miss Joan Robinson, 20, and Robert Walker, 19, were dead on arrival at Lakeside Hospital. Seriously wounded was Fred Evans, 21.

Police said Evans had been dating Miss Robinson, quarreled with her and went to her apartment with a gun. Walker, who lived in another apartment at the same address, was there with several other persons, and Evans fired on them then shot himself, police quoted witnesses as saying.

3 Czechs Defect, Ask Asylum In Britain

LONDON (AP)—Three young Czechs —two of them scientists —have defected and asked for asylum in Britain, the Home Office said today.

The government ministry said Robert Holub, 28, his wife Marie, 22, and Milan Bednarek, 28, quit a party of tourists last week and spent six days in a Salvation Army hostel before going to the police.

The Home Office said their request was being considered.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

Dear Heloise: I wear dacron and nylon nurses' uniforms, and even repeated washings failed to get them snow white.

The Catholic nuns, who always wear beautiful white articles of clothing taught me to wash the uniforms by using one cup of automatic dishwasher detergent (use no soap), and letting the machine run through the complete wash cycle.

The uniforms come out sparkling white!

Occasionally, I wash them twice, by turning the machine back to the beginning of its washing cycle, adding my detergent, and letting it go through the complete washing cycle again. One need not do this every time they launder white "lon" garments, only when they become stained and yellow again.

This also helps remove the stains on husbands' undershirts, and on pillowslips, especially when a man uses lots of oil on his hair.

NURSE.

DEAR FOLKS: I have checked with one of the top chemists, and also a big manufacturer of laundry products. They state this woman is absolutely correct. Automatic dishwashing detergent has a different cleaning power than the usual detergents.

We know it is quite safe to use it on dacron and nylon.

If you use this method, put a cup of automatic dishwasher detergent in a pan, pour in boiling water, and let the granules completely dissolve. Then pour it into the lukewarm water in your washing machine. (Even cold water in the machine is good when this method is used.)

If you have a top-loading machine, stop the machine before it spin dries, and remove the articles. Never spin-dry "lon," and never use hot water as it will set more wrinkles which even an iron won't take out.

And, my heartfelt thanks to the nurse who wrote us this letter. Bless her always.

HELOISE.

LETTER OF LAUGHTER

DEAR HELOISE: I organize and reorganize until I have the most organized confusion in town.

"MERLIN."

DEAR HELOISE: Girls, did you know that you could have a drawer full of beautiful half slips simply by cutting the tops off your lace trimmed slips after they wear around the tops and straps?

There is a special nylon elastic which looks exactly like the elastic in panties. You can sew it on, before cutting, and have a very pretty, neat job that will last indefinitely. Or, make a tubing and run elastic through the tube. It's neat

The elastic can be purchased at notion counters, and has enough on a card for two or three slips.

RAYE.

DEAR HELOISE: I decorate cakes with tiny plastic flowers.

One stem is often enough—just cut the flowers apart—and also use the leaves for decorating. Tiny violets, lilies of the valley, or just any small flowers, look so pretty when placed here and there on the icing.

The flowers can be washed after using, and used again and again.

They make every cake a "party cake."

MRS. K. DUCKWORTH.

DEAR HELOISE: My children's beds are in the corners of the room.

I have discovered an easy way to make them.

When I change the sheets, I tuck them in tight against-the-wall and make the head of the bed at the foot. Then, during the week I have only to stand at the foot of the bed and pull and tuck . . . no reaching across the bed for covers!

The children love sleeping backwards, and it's so easy for me to make the beds the next day.

Budget OK'd At Palestine

EAST PALESTINE — The Board of Education approved a budget of $957,000 and awarded two construction contracts at a meeting Monday night.

The figures represent a marked increase over the 1965 budget of $859,800.

The 1966 budget, broken down, shows $782,300 for the general fund, $86,000 in bonds and $89,000 for the lunch rooms.

A contract for about $9,000 was awarded to Canton Floors, Inc., for the laying of a new gym floor in the high school.

The other contract for $4,100 was awarded to Dougherty & Mitchell, Inc., of Youngstown for laying a gas line to the Unity School and constructing a gas house and conversion furnace there.

Thief Takes Battery From Lawyer's Auto

Atty. William S. Foulks, 239 W. 2nd St., told police Tuesday a 12-volt battery was stolen from his 1956 model auto sometime between 11 p.m. Monday and 6 a.m. yesterday while it was parked in Center Alley at the rear of his home.

Reporting the theft late yesterday morning, the lawyer said the thief also removed an oil breather cap from the engine and damaged a water line connected to the radiator.

Crucible recently developed a new tool steel which has stimulated such great customer interest, we think we have a real winner.

Called "Versatool" TM, the new steel fills the wide gap between low-alloy and high-alloy tool steels and sells at half the price of the high-alloy product. The steel is proving so versatile that our customers are finding applications for it that we hadn't even considered.

"Versatool" was developed in our Research laboratory where Crucible people constantly look for new steels or ways to improve our current products. It is produced by Crucible people in Syracuse, N. Y. and already is being used at Midland works for knives in this slitting machine operated by Donald Fridrick. "Versatool" is a good example of how Crucible people, plant and capital work together for progress.

Will Be Aired At Dinner

Gosney Plans Nationwide Unit Of County Chairmen

Don R. Gosney, Columbiana County Democratic chairman, said today the heads of the party in 15 Northeastern Ohio counties will be invited to a dinner meeting in early August to discuss his plan for organizing a National Democratic County Chairmen's Association covering all 50 states.

Gosney, of Columbiana village, said he regards the proposal as "the first real grass roots movement to bring cooperation not only with the state committee and the national committee, but to give county chairmen from various states an opportunity to meet and discuss mutual problems."

Such an organization also would bring the county chairmen in closer contact with the national administration, he said.

Gosney said the exact date and site of the dinner will be announced later. He said he will invite Democratic chairmen from a tier of counties extending from the Ohio River to Lake Erie and comprising the most populous area of the state. If the 15 chairmen receive the idea favorably, the organization will be pressed statewide and nationwide, he said. Ohio has 88 counties, with 3,072 throughout the U.S.

"I feel this is the best movement that could be undertaken to strengthen the national Democratic party," Gosney commented. He said the 15 chairmen also will discuss the party's position in Ohio.

Gosney was active in an Ohio Democratic group which supported Lyndon Johnson for the party's presidential nimination in 1960, when he accepted the vice-presidential spot and then moved up to succeed John F. Kennedy.

Johnson has spoken in Columbiana County twice at Jefferson-Jackson Day dinners of the party — once as Senate majority leader and again as vice president. On one of his trips, he was accompanied by Cliff Carter, now executive director of the Democratic National Committee.

Caboose Stands As Playhouse 25 Miles From Rails

LIBERTYTOWN, Md. (AP) — Twenty-five miles from the nearest railroad tracks, a Baltimore-Ohio Railroad caboose stands in a backyard of this tiny Western Maryland community.

Last year, Bill found a caboose in the B&O yards at Brunswick, Md., ready for the scrap heap. He persuaded railroad officials to sell it to him for $350, then he spent another $480 having it moved the 25 miles to his backyard.

Ferris Wheel Record Claimed By Youth, 19

SAN JOSE, Calif. (AP) — Jim Bakich, 19, a San Jose City College freshman, today claimed a world record on the ferris wheel — 14 days of continual revolution.

The student slept, ate, listened to a radio and talked on a phone while aboard the ferris wheel gondola, located in a San Jose amusement park. He staggered slightly as he landed Tuesday, but said he was feeling fine.

Pair Held 17 Days

CLEARWATER, Fla. (AP) — A man and a woman were held 17 days in the Pinellas County jail awaiting trial on traffic violations because neither could post $50 bond.

Julie Louis, 43, of Fort Lauderdale and John Klado, 50, of Hollywood, were released Tuesday by Peace Justice Jack Dadswell after pleading guilty.

"This is ridiculous," said Dadswell. "How can this happen?"

Will Be Aired At Dinner

Gosney Plans Nationwide Unit Of County Chairmen

Don R. Gosney, Columbiana County Democratic chairman, said today the heads of the party in 15 Northeastern Ohio counties will be invited to a dinner meeting in early August to discuss his plan for organizing a National Democratic County Chairmen's Association covering all 50 states.

Gosney, of Columbiana village, said he regards the proposal as "the first real grass roots movement to bring cooperation not only with the state committee and the national committee, but to give county chairmen from various states an opportunity to meet and discuss mutual problems."

Such an organization also would bring the county chairmen in closer contact with the national administration, he said.

In addition to his county post, Gosney is a member of the state central committee from the 18th Congressional District and serves as the area secretary for Rep. Wayne L. Hays of Flushing, district congressman.

Gosney said the exact date and site of the dinner will be announced later. He said he will invite Democratic chairmen from a tier of counties extending from the Ohio River to Lake Erie and comprising the most populous area of the state. If the 15 chairmen receive the idea favorably, the organization will be pressed statewide and nationwide, he said. Ohio has 88 counties, with 3,072 throughout the U.S.

"I feel this is the best movement that could be undertaken to strengthen the national Democratic party," Gosney commented. He said the 15 chairmen also will discuss the party's position in Ohio.

Gosney was active in an Ohio Democratic group which supported Lyndon Johnson for the party's presidential nimination in 1960, when he accepted the vice-presidential spot and then moved up to succeed John F. Kennedy.

Johnson has spoken in Columbiana County twice at Jefferson-Jackson Day dinners of the party — once as Senate majority leader and again as vice president. On one of his trips, he was accompanied by Cliff Carter, now executive director of the Democratic National Committee.

Caboose Stands As Playhouse 25 Miles From Rails

LIBERTYTOWN, Md. (AP) — Twenty-five miles from the nearest railroad tracks, a Baltimore-Ohio Railroad caboose stands in a backyard of this tiny Western Maryland community.

Last year, Bill found a caboose in the B&O yards at Brunswick, Md., ready for the scrap heap. He persuaded railroad officials to sell it to him for $350, then he spent another $480 having it moved the 25 miles to his backyard.

Ferris Wheel Record Claimed By Youth, 19

SAN JOSE, Calif. (AP) — Jim Bakich, 19, a San Jose City College freshman, today claimed a world record on the ferris wheel — 14 days of continual revolution.

The student slept, ate, listened to a radio and talked on a phone while aboard the ferris wheel gondola, located in a San Jose amusement park. He staggered slightly as he landed Tuesday, but said he was feeling fine.

Pair Held 17 Days

CLEARWATER, Fla. (AP) — A man and a woman were held 17 days in the Pinellas County jail awaiting trial on traffic violations because neither could post $50 bond.

Julie Louis, 43, of Fort Lauderdale and John Klado, 50, of Hollywood, were released Tuesday by Peace Justice Jack Dadswell after pleading guilty.

The New 'FBI' Series

In 1958 the FBI's J. Edgar Hoover had an editorial in the bureau's house organ excoriating the glorification of crime in movies and TV as "an affront to the national conscience."

Hal Humphrey

One year later the Desilu studios and producer Quinn Martin launched "The Untouchables," a TV series with more crime, violence and sadism per film foot than anything attempted before.

-:-

THIS FALL, on the same ABC network which carried "The Untouchables," we find the same Quinn Martin joining hands to produce a TV series called "The FBI."

I consider this a fine piece of irony, and it will be amusing to see how Hoover and Martin compromise what one must assume are their different philosophical approaches to crime and violence on TV.

Producer Martin already has told Variety's Hollywood TV correspondent, Dave Kaufman, that he must have "dramatic license" and that the FBI has agreed. The statement was provoked by Martin's discovering only 13 FBI agents have been shot in 32 years.

In a TV series dealing with crime, such a low casualty rate, even among the good guys, is unheard of — a fact that spurred Martin's request for dramatic license, which undoubtedly will be translated into corpses.

STORIES reportedly in the works for the series, which is being done at Warner Bros., are a bank robbery, Communist investigations, kidnaping, private armies, espionage, syndicate crime and a psycopathic youth who kills girls with long hair.

Asked by Kaufman if there would be a civil rights story, Martin replied no because the series deals only with closed cases, and added, "I wouldn't shy away from it, but I don't think a political discussion on the FBI's role in civil rights would be entertaining."

How will Martin keep the entertainment quotient of the TV series at the necessary pitch and still prevent Hoover from looking foolish on his widely known stand against excessive violence and crime in our TV programs? That is the question.

THE NETWORK and the sponsors of "The FBI" naturally will insist upon enough "action" to keep the series' rating high, yet Hoover is bound by his past criticism of TV violence to see that his FBI does not become a contributor to that violence.

One New York TV critic already has censored Hoover for putting his seal of approval and cooperation to the TV series and questions the ethics of the move.

Even the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) became interested when it heard an FBI clearance was required by any actor appearing in the series. The ACLU and the Screen Actors Guild have been assured that only the regular stars and others directly connected with it have been checked through the FBI files to determine that they were never Communists or otherwise subversive.

POLITICAL colorations are not a factor once the Commie hurdle is passed. Efrem Zimbalist Jr., who plays the lead FBI agent, was an active campaigner and speaker for Republican candidate Barry Goldwater in 1964.

Producer Martin calls himself a "liberal Democrat" and, after visiting FBI headquarters in Washington and the academy at Quantico, Va., he said, "I wanted to find out for myself if its (the FBI's) people were as right-wing as I'd been hearing. Well, I explored and I found them a political . . . and a great outfit . . ."

No one can say there isn't any preseason interest in "The FBI" series. Probably more has been said and written about it than any other new series for the coming fall, a fact which already must be causing some concern on the part of Ed Sullivan and Walt Disney, whose shows will be on opposite Hoover's.

Airlines Authorized To Cut Ohio Service

WASHINGTON (AP) — Lake Central Airlines was authorized by the Civil Aeronautics Board Tuesday to reduce service at Portsmouth, Ohio, on its Washington - Baltimore and Cincinnati route to one round trip a day.

Lake Central has been required to provide two round trips daily for Portsmouth, necessitating a special DC 3 shuttle service between Portsmouth and Cincinnati because the Portsmouth airport cannot accommodate the large Convair 340 aircraft.

Consultant Says Honeymoon Much Sweeter When Short

CHICAGO (AP) — The honeymoon is much sweeter when short, says a wedding consultant, and short honeymoons are better for a marriage too.

"The most surprising thing is that many times a couple gets bored with each other on a long honeymoon," consultant Louis Seno said in an interview.

"The shorter the honeymoon, the better. Two weeks is the most I'd advise," he said.

Seno, a wedding consultant 20 years, said the anxiety and excitement leading to the wedding puts a couple on their best behavior.

"Then suddenly they're married. They think they know each other, but then they start spending 24 hours a day together and discover they don't.

"In a strange resort, surrounded by strangers, the discovery that Prince Charming snores or has a few minor faults can be devastating.

Seno, 41 and father of four, said a short honeymoon gives the couple a chance to be alone, and that the return home means the real beginning of happiness.

"At home, even though it's a brand new apartment, a bride can take things in stride," Seno said. "The man gets up and goes to work, and the wife has a chance to relax, do her daily chores and dismiss the little frailties of her husband."

Seno said the most susceptible persons to a soured honeymoon are women who have lived with their parents and have made few trips.

"The more the homebody, the more they look forward to a trip — and stretch it too long," he said. "Many women end up getting homesick. As a result impatience and misunderstanding

Most Red Personnel In U.S. Dangerous, FBI Chief Says

WASHINGTON (AP) — Most Communist diplomatic personnel in the United States are a dangerous threat to national security, J. Edgar Hoover said today.

"The great majority of the 800 Communist-bloc official personnel stationed in the United States," the FBI director said, "protected by the privilege of diplomatic immunity have engaged in intelligence assignments and are a dangerous threat to the security of the United States."

He added: "Concentrating particularly on youth, Communists launched widespread propaganda campaigns designed to enlist support for a determined and vicious attack on American foreign policies and to foment confusion and create disorder in regard to the nation's efforts to resolve the racial situation."

Hoover echoed the opinion of his superior, Atty. Gen. Nicholas Katzenbach, in emphasizing that racial and student demonstrations that went on throughout the year were neither instigated nor controlled by Communists.

However, he said: "Communists used the opportunities presented to infiltrate many of the demonstrations and exploit them to their benefit in line with their own objectives."

STORIES reportedly in the works for the series, which is being done at Warner Bros., are a bank robbery, Communist investigations, kidnaping, private armies, espionage, syndicate crime and a psycopathic youth who kills girls with long hair.

Asked by Kaufman if there would be a civil rights story, Martin replied no because the series deals only with closed cases, and added, "I wouldn't shy away from it, but I don't think a political discussion on the FBI's role in civil rights would be entertaining."

How will Martin keep the entertainment quotient of the TV series at the necessary pitch and still prevent Hoover from looking foolish on his widely known stand against excessive violence and crime in our TV programs? That is the question.

THE NETWORK and the sponsors of "The FBI" naturally will insist upon enough "action" to keep the series' rating high, yet Hoover is bound by his past criticism of TV violence to see that his FBI does not become a contributor to that violence.

One New York TV critic already has censored Hoover for putting his seal of approval and cooperation to the TV series and questions the ethics of the move.

Even the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) became interested when it heard an FBI clearance was required by any actor appearing in the series. The ACLU and the Screen Actors Guild have been assured that only the regular stars and others directly connected with it have been checked through the FBI files to determine that they were never Communists or otherwise subversive.

POLITICAL colorations are not a factor once the Commie hurdle is passed. Efrem Zimbalist Jr., who plays the lead FBI agent, was an active campaigner and speaker for Republican candidate Barry Goldwater in 1964.

Producer Martin calls himself a "liberal Democrat" and, after visiting FBI headquarters in Washington and the academy at Quantico, Va., he said, "I wanted to find out for myself if its (the FBI's) people were as right-wing as I'd been hearing. Well, I explored and I found them a political . . . and a great outfit . . ."

No one can say there isn't any preseason interest in "The FBI" series. Probably more has been said and written about it than any other new series for the coming fall, a fact which already must be causing some concern on the part of Ed Sullivan and Walt Disney, whose shows will be on opposite Hoover's.

Airlines Authorized To Cut Ohio Service

WASHINGTON (AP) — Lake Central Airlines was authorized by the Civil Aeronautics Board Tuesday to reduce service at Portsmouth, Ohio, on its Washington - Baltimore and Cincinnati route to one round trip a day.

Lake Central has been required to provide two round trips daily for Portsmouth, necessitating a special DC 3 shuttle service between Portsmouth and Cincinnati because the Portsmouth airport cannot accommodate the large Convair 340 aircraft.

Judgment's Awarded In Road Project Case

PAINESVILLE, Ohio (AP)—A trucking firm owner who claimed part of Interstate 90 near here was improperly built has won a $38,473 judgment against J. A. Jones Construction Co., general contractor for the project.

A Lake County Common Pleas Court jury made the award Tuesday to A. H. Miller & Sons, Inc., of Warren as payment Miller said was due on extra sub base material it had to haul. Miller said William Loveland, Inc., of Geneva, another plaintiff in the suit, would receive about $13,000 of the judgment.

Consultant Says Honeymoon Much Sweeter When Short

CHICAGO (AP) — The honeymoon is much sweeter when short, says a wedding consultant, and short honeymoons are better for a marriage too.

"The most surprising thing is that many times a couple gets bored with each other on a long honeymoon," consultant Louis Seno said in an interview.

"The shorter the honeymoon, the better. Two weeks is the most I'd advise," he said.

Seno, a wedding consultant 20 years, said the anxiety and excitement leading to the wedding puts a couple on their best behavior.

"Then suddenly they're married. They think they know each other, but then they start spending 24 hours a day together and discover they don't.

"In a strange resort, surrounded by strangers, the discovery that Prince Charming snores or has a few minor faults can be devastating.

"The newly married couple obligates each other to constant entertainment. They see little or nothing connected with their home life."

Seno, 41 and father of four, said a short honeymoon gives the couple a chance to be alone, and that the return home means the real beginning of happiness.

"At home, even though it's a brand new apartment, a bride can take things in stride," Seno said. "The man gets up and goes to work, and the wife has a chance to relax, do her daily chores and dismiss the little frailties of her husband."

Seno said the most susceptible persons to a soured honeymoon are women who have lived with their parents and have made few trips.

"The more the homebody, the more they look forward to a trip — and stretch it too long," he said. "Many women end up getting homesick. As a result impatience and misunderstanding

Most Red Personnel In U.S. Dangerous, FBI Chief Says

WASHINGTON (AP) — Most Communist diplomatic personnel in the United States are a dangerous threat to national security, J. Edgar Hoover said today.

"The great majority of the 800 Communist-bloc official personnel stationed in the United States," the FBI director said, "protected by the privilege of diplomatic immunity have engaged in intelligence assignments and are a dangerous threat to the security of the United States."

In a fiscal yearend report pointing with pride to FBI accomplishments, Hoover said members of the American Communist party "continued to constitute a major disruptive influence on the national scene" during the year.

He added: "Concentrating particularly on youth, Communists launched widespread propaganda campaigns designed to enlist support for a determined and vicious attack on American foreign policies and to foment confusion and create disorder in regard to the nation's efforts to resolve the racial situation."

Hoover echoed the opinion of his superior, Atty. Gen. Nicholas Katzenbach, in emphasizing that racial and student demonstrations that went on throughout the year were neither instigated nor controlled by Communists.

However, he said: "Communists used the opportunities presented to infiltrate many of the demonstrations and exploit them to their benefit in line with their own objectives."

ORDINANCE NO. 14 1965

AN ORDINANCE DETERMINING THE COST AND EXPENSE FOR THE YEAR 1965-66 FOR THE IMPROVEMENT OF CERTAIN DESIGNATED STREETS IN THE CITY OF EAST LIVERPOOL, OHIO, BETWEEN CERTAIN TERMINI BY LIGHTING WITH FLUORESCENT LAMPS, AND DECLARING AN EMERGENCY.

WHEREAS, this Council by Ordinance No. 26, 1963 passed on the 12th day of July, 1963, levied special assessments for the improvement of certain designated streets in the City of East Liverpool, Ohio, between certain termini by lighting with fluorescent lamps, which ordinance provided that assessments thereby levied for years after the first year are to be adjusted in proportion to the cost and expense of said improvement, determined at the beginning of each such succeeding year, in accordance with a formula set forth in Section 1 of said Ordinance; and

WHEREAS this Council is now able to determine the cost and expense of said improvement for the third year thereof,

NOW THEREFORE,

BE IT ORDAINED by the Council of the City of East Liverpool, Ohio:

SECTION 1. That in connection with the levying of special assessments for the year 1965-66 for the improvement of certain designated streets of the City of East Liverpool, Ohio, between certain termini by lighting the same with fluorescent lamps and in accordance with the provisions of Section 1 of Ordinance No. 26, 1963, it is hereby found and determined that the cost and expense of said improvement for the year 1965-66 amounts in the aggregate to $7,800.29, and that by application of the formula for determining the adjusted rate of assessment per front foot for the year 1965-66 as set out in Section 1 of said Ordinance, the assessments for said year 1965-66 are at the rate of $1.359 per front foot, which rate does not exceed $1.68 per front foot, the limit provided in said Ordinance and which rate shall be applied to each assessable front foot to determine the 1965-66 assessment for each of the lots and lands assessed by the aforesaid Ordinance.

SECTION 2. That the assessment against each lot or parcel of land shall be payable in cash within 30 days after July 12, 1965, and all assessments and installments thereof remaining unpaid at that time shall be certified by the Clerk of this Council to the County Auditor as provided by law to be placed by him on the tax duplicate and collected as other taxes are collected.

SECTION 3. That the Clerk of this Council shall forthwith compute the assessments for the year 1965-66 and shall then place the same on file with this Council and thereafter cause a notice of the passage of this ordinance and the filing of such 1965-66 assessments to be published once in a newspaper of general circulation in this City and to continue on file in his office said list of assessment for the year 1965-66.

SECTION 4. That the Clerk of the Council is hereby directed to deliver a certified copy of this ordinance to the County Auditor within twenty (20) days after its passage.

SECTION 5. That this ordinance is hereby declared to be an emergency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public, peace, health and safety and for the further reason that it is immediately necessary to make payable the assessments herein determined in order that the affected property owners will be afforded the full 30 days from and after July 12, 1965, for the paying thereof in cash as contemplated by assessing ordinance No. 26, 1963, passed July 12, 1963, and thus avoid the penalties concomitant with the collection thereof by the County Auditor; wherefor, this ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and immediately after its passage and approval by the Mayor.

A A DEALER needs cars and pick-ups. Must be exceptionally sharp. Will pay cash or if payments too high will trade back to older model — finance balances paid off. "Say," why not trade back to one of the most economical cars in the world for approximately $1 a day. You can trade your big costly operating car for a like new Volkswagen with operating on 1c per mile, 5.3 pints of the best oil, get up to 43.2 miles on regular gas, up to 100,000 miles on your first set of tires, also in replacing a new rear fender costs only $18.95, insurance is much, much less on a Volkswagen. Make us prove it. You eliminate water pump, radiator, anti-freeze, hose, clamps, drive shaft assembly. It's a rear end air cooled engine. You can almost trade year for year for the price of power steering, power brakes, power windows, power seat, and automatic on your big costly operating car. Volkswagen has the lowest depreciation, providing you keep it sharp, highest trade in value, was $1,595 now just $1,563. You pay less and save 50c out of every $1 when you drive a Volkswagen verusus a big costly operating car. Why not join the millions of people who are driving the Volkswagen. There must be a reason. Come in, write, or call and talk to our courteous salesmen. SEE your local represenetative Mr. CHUCK RINESTINE. See it — Drive it — Just try it. — There goes another Volkswagen. 74-A Automobiles For Rent

A A DEALER needs cars and pickups. Must be exceptionally sharp. Will pay cash or if payments too high will trade back to older model — finance balances paid off. "Say," why not trade back to one of the most economical cars in the world for approximately $1 a day. You can trade your big costly operating car for a like new Volkswagen with operating on 1c per mile, 5.3 pints of the best oil, get up to 43.2 miles on regular gas, up to 100,000 miles on your first set of tires, also in replacing a new rear fender costs only $18.95, insurance is much, much less on a Volkswagen. Make us prove it. You eliminate water pump, radiator, anti-freeze, hose, clamps, drive shaft assembly. It's a rear end air cooled engine. You can almost trade year for year for the price of power steering, power brakes, power windows, power seat, and automatic on your big costly operating car. Volkswagen has the lowest depreciation, providing you keep it sharp, highest trade in value, was $1,595 now just $1,563. You pay less and save 50c out of every $1 when you drive a Volkswagen verusus a big costly operating car. Why not join the millions of people who are driving the Volkswagen. There must be a reason. Come in, write, or call and talk to our courteous salesmen. SEE your local represenetative Mr. CHUCK RINESTINE. See it — Drive it — Just try it. — There goes another Volkswagen. Why does he drive a Volkswagen? Ask the man who owns one. Beaver Valley Volkswagen, 294 State St., Vanport, Beaver, Pa. Your factory dealer only 12 miles or 20 minutes from East Liverpool, Ohio on Pa. Rt. 68. 775-4550.

P. S. PARTS AVAILABLE IMMEDIATELY or on tap within 24 hours. STARTING JUNE 20TH Service almost immediately. Call Mr. Charles Coen, your local man from Wellsville and our service manager or Mr. Earl King, parts manager for more information.

Junior Editors Quiz on SAILBOATS

QUESTION: How can sailboats sail into the wind?

ANSWER: This question often puzzles persons unacquainted with sailing. Since the wind blows boats along, how can it blow them against itself? No boat can sail directly into the wind. In the picture, Jerry and Jack are sailing their pram-type sailboats across the harbor toward a dock which is close to the lighthouse. Yet the wind is coming from the direction of the lighthouse. The white lines show the paths the boys will take to get to the dock. If their boats can't sail directly into the wind, they can sail into it at about a 45-degree angle from where it's coming. So they angle up in one direction, then turn the boat's bow around and angle up in another. Following these zig-zag paths (called beating to windward) both boys will end up at the lighthouse dock. The diagrams show how they can angle into the wind. (1) show air currents flowing over an airplane wing. Air currents passing over the curving top create a lifting up force. In (2) you see the same lifting force working in front of a boat's curving sail. In (3) you see how the boats keel or centerboard prevents it from being pushed sideways. part of the wind's force striking the inside of the sail also helps to shove it ahead.

FOR YOU TO DO: Boating has become such a popular sport that there is a chance you may see sailboats in action sometime this summer. Figure out where the wind is coming from and then notice the zig-zag courses of these boats sailing into it, called sailing to windward.

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Wednesday, July 14, the 196th day of 1965. There are 170 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1853, Commodore Matthew Perry presented a letter from President Millard Fillmore to the emperor of Japan after a ceremonial parade in Tokyo of 500 U.S. Navy bluejackets and officers. The opening of Japan to trade the next year was assured.

On this date

In 1789, a French mob stormed and captured The Bastille, marking the start of the French Revolution.

In 1853, the first international exposition in America was opened in New York City's Crystal Palace.

In 1918, the son of former President Theodore Roosevelt, Lieutenant Quentin Roosevelt, was killed in aerial combat. He was buried with military honors by the Germans.

In 1942, Gen. Mark Clark was named commander of American ground forces in Britain.

Ten years ago—a curfew was imposed in Casablanca, French Morocco, following rioting in which 17 persons were killed in 24 hours.

Five years ago— the United Nations Security Council approved a request by Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold for authority to send a U. N. peace force into the Congo.

One year ago — The United States approved a loan of more than $7 million dollars to help Afghanistan build highways.

Gary Player and Kel Nagle not only played off for the U. S. Open title but they also were head-to-head in the third round when Player shot a 71 and Nagle at 72. In the playoff, Player had 71, Nagle 74.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: You said in a recent column that a mother who streaked her 16-year-old son's hair with peroxide was off her rocker. I think maybe you are off your rocker, Granny. I'm a boy, 17, and it so happens that I streak my own hair and it looks great.

My hair used to be a lifeless, dull brown. Now, girls who never knew I existed come over to me and tell me they think my hair looks terrific. In fact, a couple of the girls call me the "Blond Bomber."

From the picture of you in the paper I would like to suggest that you do something with your hair. It looks terrible. — FORMER READER.

Dear Former: So the girls call you the "Blond Bomber." What do the boys call you?

If you want to put your hair up in curlers it's all right with me, Bub, and it may even attract more attention than the streaks.

Sultan Of Swat

Dear Ann: We have five children who are normal, healthy and well behaved, thanks to the firm handling of my husband and my own belief that parents need not take any sass or nonsense.

Sunday we were visiting in the home of my husband's brother and his wife. They have three boys who do as they please. There isn't one piece of furniture in their home that isn't broken. The floors are scratched because the kids slide in their golf shoes. Holes have been punched in the wall by the kids on their tricycles.

The 7-year-old asked my husband to take off his shoes so he could walk in them. My husband said, "No." The boy asked, "Why not?" My husband replied, "Because my shoes are not toys." The youngster then said, "If you don't let me I'll sock you." My husband said, "You'd better not."

The boy struck my husband in the back with his fist and ran to his father. My husband got up and gave the child a hard swat on the rear.

The boy's father was furious. He shouted, "You have no right to strike my son. If you want to beat your own kids that's your business but our children are not accustomed to violence."

May I have your opinion? Frankly, I have mixed emotions. Please direct your remarks to my husband. Thank you. —Q.T.

-:-

Dear Q. T: I have only two words for your husband Heartiest congratulations.

Germ Killer

Dear Ann: I'm concerned about our grandson. My daughter says it is just a "phase." I'm not so sure. Please tell me what you think about a 15-year-old boy who has a deep-seated fear of germs.

Frank washes his hands for at least 15 minutes before each meal. He scrubs up like a surgeon, then uses an antiseptic solution. The boy refuses to carry out the garbage for his mother because he is afraid of being contaminated. He won't shake hands when introduced unless he is forced by someone who grabs his hand.

My daughter says Frank is just overly clean. I say it's more complicated. Please state your views. — CONCERNED GRANDMOTHER.

Dear Grandmother: My views probably would not carrry any more weight than your views. So here are the views of three psychiatrists:

Found Locked In Hope Chest

Parents Receive Warning After Death Of 2 Boys

CLEVELAND (AP)—A deputy coroner warns that the accidental death of two small boys found curled inside a locked family hope chest should be a lesson to parents of little children.

The bodies of the boys, objects of a 24-hour search, were discovered Tuesday by two detectives in an attic of a home where one of the boys lived. They were Donald DiLiberto, 6, and the only child of a 36-year-old widow, and Michael Moughan, 4, one of five children.

Deputy Coroner Lester A. Adelson ruled the boys suffocated within minutes after climbing into the chest, which had a snap lock that could be opened only by pressing an outside button.

"They couldn't have survived very long," said Dr. Adelson. "It was a small chest and the air supply probably gave out quickly."

He added:

"There's a lesson in this for all of us who have small children. Children are very resourceful, very ingenious. This is a variation of the tragedies involving abandoned iceboxes. It is terrible, terrible. It points out how alert parents must be."

Authorities theorized the chest's heavy lid slammed shut on the boys, and the older boy, judging from the position of his body, may have tried to push open the lid. The bodies were lying next to each other, head to foot.

The chest had been in the attic for about a decade. Mrs. Rosemary DiLiberto, Donald's mother, lives with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Corrado. A saleswoman at a neighborhood store, she was at work when her son disappeared.

A member of the Corrado family said one of the girls had used the cedar chest as a hope chest. The family had searched the house three times but no one had thought of opening the chest, police said.

Ohio Elks Newsette Wins National Award

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—The Elks Grand Lodge, for the fifth straight year, has awarded top national honors to the Ohio Elks Newsette, official monthly publication of the Ohio Elks Association.

Mrs. Ruth Cope and daughter returned Monday from a weekend trip to Niagara Falls. They were accompanied by Miss Betty Stephens of Lakewood.

GOP Advisory Group Has Lisbon Meeting

The Salineville Republican Club will have a cookout Monday night at the cottage of Kenneth Leishman, near Clewell's Landing at Guilford Lake. Hotdogs and hamburgers will be furnished. Those attending are asked to bring a coverdish.

The next advisory council luncheon will be July 26 at the hotel.

Man Receives Loan, It's Gift From Bank

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — A 38-year-old steel worker who went to the bank for a $1,000 loan was amazed when the bank gave it to him as a gift.

Officials of the Marine Trust Co. of Western New York handed Henry A. Kawa of suburban Orchard Park ten $100 bills Tuesday and marked his loan paid in full.

A bank spokesman said that last month the bank noticed it had granted 650,000 loans and decided to make a gift of a loan sought by its 700,000th customer.

Kawa was No. 700,000.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: You said in a recent column that a mother who streaked her 16-year-old son's hair with peroxide was off her rocker. I think maybe you are off your rocker, Granny. I'm a boy, 17, and it so happens that I streak my own hair and it looks great.

My hair used to be a lifeless, dull brown. Now, girls who never knew I existed come over to me and tell me they think my hair looks terrific. In fact, a couple of the girls call me the "Blond Bomber."

From the picture of you in the paper I would like to suggest that you do something with your hair. It looks terrible. — FORMER READER.

Dear Former: So the girls call you the "Blond Bomber." What do the boys call you?

If you want to put your hair up in curlers it's all right with me, Bub, and it may even attract more attention than the streaks.

Sultan Of Swat

Dear Ann: We have five children who are normal, healthy and well behaved, thanks to the firm handling of my husband and my own belief that parents need not take any sass or nonsense.

Sunday we were visiting in the home of my husband's brother and his wife. They have three boys who do as they please. There isn't one piece of furniture in their home that isn't broken. The floors are scratched because the kids slide in their golf shoes. Holes have been punched in the wall by the kids on their tricycles.

The 7-year-old asked my husband to take off his shoes so he could walk in them. My husband said, "No." The boy asked, "Why not?" My husband replied, "Because my shoes are not toys." The youngster then said, "If you don't let me I'll sock you." My husband said, "You'd better not."

The boy struck my husband in the back with his fist and ran to his father. My husband got up and gave the child a hard swat on the rear.

The boy's father was furious. He shouted, "You have no right to strike my son. If you want to beat your own kids that's your business but our children are not accustomed to violence."

May I have your opinion? Frankly, I have mixed emotions. Please direct your remarks to my husband. Thank you. —Q.T.

—:—

Dear Q. T: I have only two words for your husband Heartiest congratulations.

Germ Killer

Dear Ann: I'm concerned about our grandson. My daughter says it is just a "phase." I'm not so sure. Please tell me what you think about a 15-year-old boy who has a deep-seated fear of germs.

Frank washes his hands for at least 15 minutes before each meal. He scrubs up like a surgeon, then uses an antiseptic solution. The boy refuses to carry out the garbage for his mother because he is afraid of being contaminated. He won't shake hands when introduced unless he is forced by someone who grabs his hand.

My daughter says Frank is just overly clean. I say it's more complicated. Please state your views. — CONCERNED GRANDMOTHER.

Dear Grandmother: My views probably would not carrry any more weight than your views. So here are the views of three psychiatrists:

Found Locked In Hope Chest

Parents Receive Warning After Death Of 2 Boys

CLEVELAND (AP)—A deputy coroner warns that the accidental death of two small boys found curled inside a locked family hope chest should be a lesson to parents of little children.

The bodies of the boys, objects of a 24-hour search, were discovered Tuesday by two detectives in an attic of a home where one of the boys lived. They were Donald DiLiberto, 6, and the only child of a 36-year-old widow, and Michael Moughan, 4, one of five children.

Deputy Coroner Lester A. Adelson ruled the boys suffocated within minutes after climbing into the chest, which had a snap lock that could be opened only by pressing an outside button.

"They couldn't have survived very long," said Dr. Adelson. "It was a small chest and the air supply probably gave out quickly."

He added:

"There's a lesson in this for all of us who have small children. Children are very resourceful, very ingenious. This is a variation of the tragedies involving abandoned iceboxes. It 's terrible, terrible. It points out how alert parents must be."

Authorities theorized the chest's heavy lid slammed shut on the boys, and the older boy, judging from the position of his body, may have tried to push open the lid. The bodies were lying next to each other, head to foot.

The chest had been in the attic for about a decade. Mrs. Rosemary DiLiberto, Donald's mother, lives with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Corrado. A saleswoman at a neighborhood store, she was at work when her son disappeared.

A member of the Corrado family said one of the girls had used the cedar chest as a hope chest. The family had searched the house three times but no one had thought of opening the chest, police said.

Man Receives Loan, It's Gift From Bank

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — A 38-year-old steel worker who went to the bank for a $1,000 loan was amazed when the bank gave it to him as a gift.

Officials of the Marine Trust Co. of Western New York handed Henry A. Kawa of suburban Orchard Park ten $100 bills Tuesday and marked his loan paid in full.

A bank spokesman said that last month the bank noticed it had granted 650,000 loans and decided to make a gift of a loan sought by its 700,000th customer.

Kawa was No. 700,000.
